ADMINISTRATORS

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Yearbooks capture “a moment in time.” Many years later, your yearbook will become your “treasure trove” inciting memories of your time at St. John’s High School. It will recall the friends you have had, the teachers and educational assistants that you have shared learning experiences with and multiple times you “just had fun.” It has been said that “nothing is ever really lost to us as long as we remember it.” Take time to remember your experiences at St. John’s High School. “Once a Tiger, always a Tiger” is a saying that will be with you throughout your journey in life. Wishing you the remembrance of your moments.

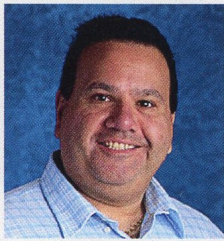

Mr. D. Taylor
Principal, St. John’s High School

Once upon a time are usually the first words we hear from bedtime stories. And these stories always include a hero, a damsel in distress, supporting characters, and the villain, of course. This cast of characters are then brought through different sequences of struggles, drama, and finally the happy ending. And in that ending, we always hear those words “and they lived happily ever after, the end.” But in the case of our stories, we won’t be saying the words “the end” just yet, for in this moment, our new story is about to begin.

Greetings everyone! It is an honor to be standing here today representing St John’s 2016 graduating class! This is indeed a glorious moment for each one of us, for today we receive the fruits of our labor. I want to thank you the teachers, the staff, and the whole administration who have guided us down the path to this accomplishment. To our families, who became the foundation and inspiration for many of us, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to all of you! To the 2016 graduating batch, I am honoured to be graduating alongside you, for you have displayed your determination throughout our high school years! And finally to God Almighty, who gave me the strength to overcome the challenges that high school had to give, thank you!

Now, you might be wondering why bedtime stories. When we were children, most of us might have read an adventure, about a hero trying to save their one true love from the clutches of the villain. This hero would undertake quite the journey just to reach their goal. The road could be treacherous, dramatic, fun, or full of romance. But we would sometimes asked, “What happened next, do they live in the next book, will they have children?” Ultimately, all we were left with was that they live happily ever after. And the majority of us believe that there was more to that. But just like the hero’s journey, on our journey at St John’s High school, the path was full of adventure and fun. Most of us might know the great tales of Mr. Wood’s of lands far away to which he ventured and places unknown to us. He told stories that caught our interest, but also replaced lecture time with storytelling time. Hopefully you’ve all had a teacher or two that you could always manage to get off track.

Our journey was also full of struggles. From decisions of which team to switch to every gym riot, to what courses to take so we could be with our friends, to studying for our exams, or even struggles with the simple stuff. Like back in grade 10, my first struggle was opening my locker, which I could never get opened, because the combination was very new to me. So I had to bring my winter coat, wear my boots, and my heavy backpack to every class. But even though our journey could be difficult, we heroes didn’t give up.

The journey also taught us about our weaknesses and strengths, and how to translate them in our very lives. I know for sure that I am not the greatest when it comes to dancing, definitely not my strength, but through singing, I was able to gather my confidence and boost my self esteem even though I was not always hitting the right notes. A special thanks to Ms. Ronquillo!

And what’s a journey without love? Love, not like those love triangles you may have been a part of, but love from our friends that made us smile, teachers you always got along with, and family that supported you. And through all that, we came to understand that love doesn’t always come from material things, but from a real live person with a beating heart.

But if we compare our stories to the books or bed time stories we have heard, that all have a certain happy ending or “The end”, we discover that unlike those stories, the next chapter of our tale is beginning; and each of us has a story that needs to be written, a journey that still needs to be shared. So I encourage each one of us to write a story. Our high school chapter is already done, but that doesn’t mean we end there, for after this graduation, we’ll be having many more inspirations to include in our story’s next chapter.

Don’t be afraid to take risks as you write your story, for the hero isn’t always the perfect person who wears a cape. But the true hero is the one who struggles and endures, and those bumps along the way empower us heroes to create a powerful and meaningful story. Aside from our happy moments, let us include the challenges and difficulties for these are the things that make us who we are!

Author, C Joybell C, wrote, “Ends are not bad things, they just mean that something else is about to begin.” Your life, your hero’s journey, your story is about to begin...

Once again, to the graduates of St John’s 2016, congratulations, and may we make another story today!
