UNICUS

I am my own person
My brand is unique
In a class of my own
I exist
My thoughts, deep down
are genuinely my own
My mind being
my one true possession
Which lies in wait
for the happenings
I have yet to encounter.

By
Krista McBride

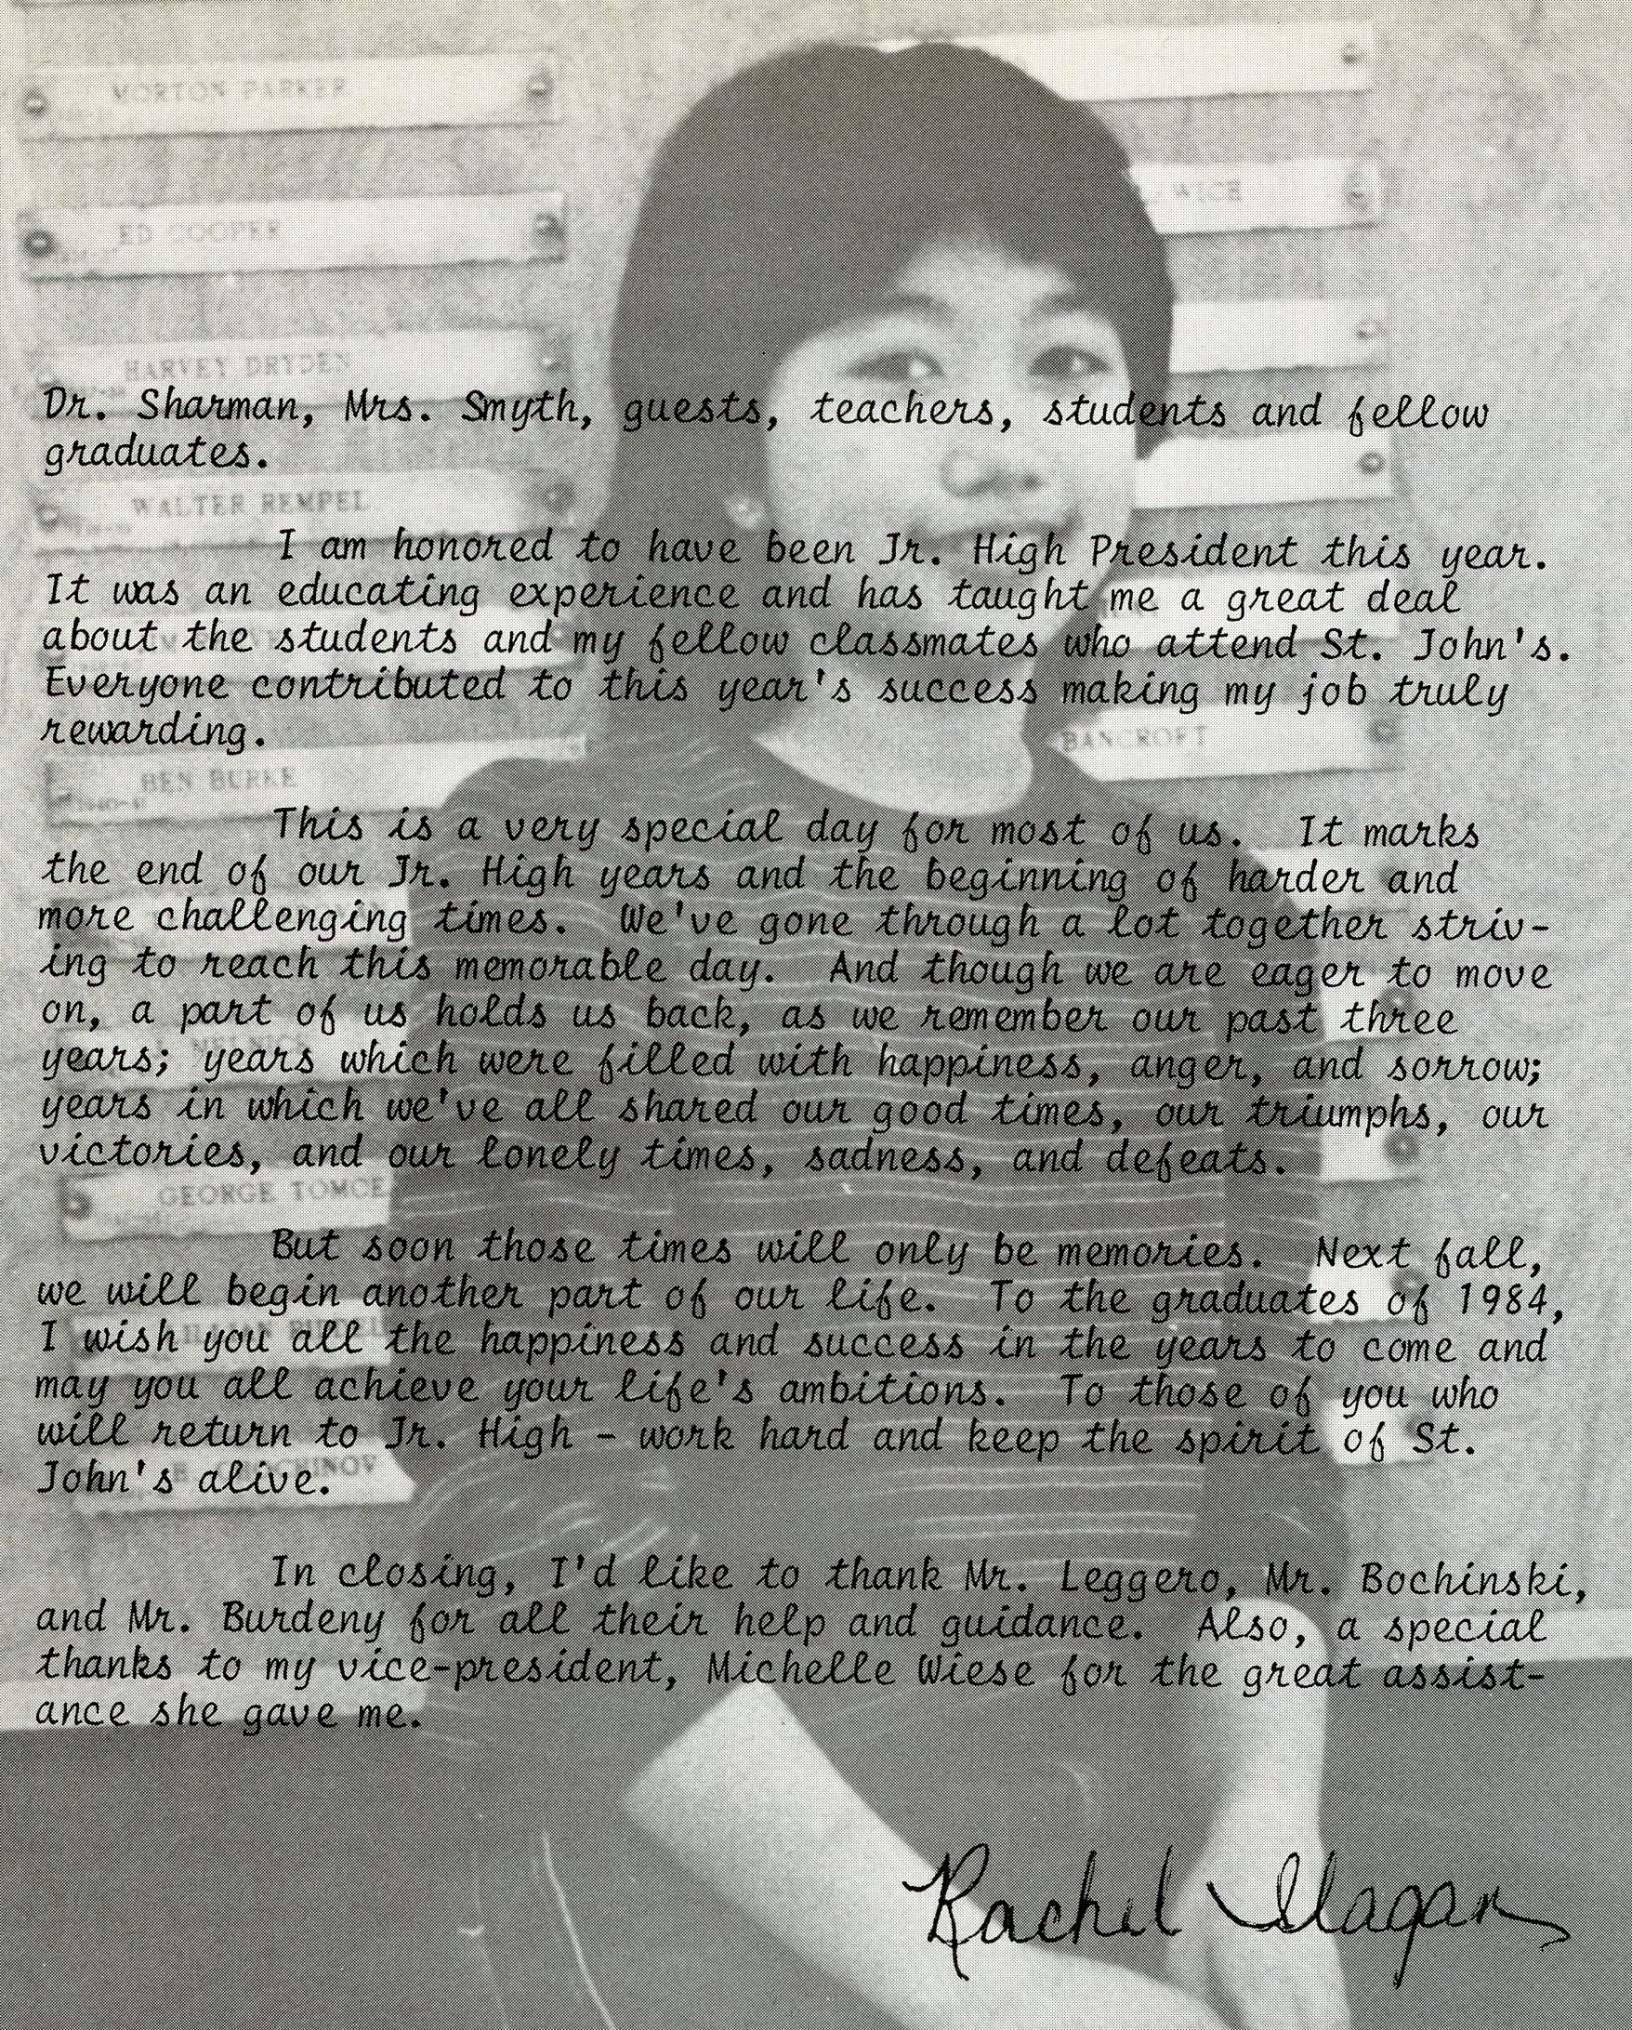

I AM I

I am unique because I am I.
There's no one quite like me and that is no lie.
So let the bees buzz and let the birds fly,
I know that I'm special, I'm a really nice guy.
I'm different, I'm novel, my thoughts are unique,
from my head to my toes, from my hands to my feet.
I can live, I can love, I can do my own thing.
I can go place to place like a bird on the wing.
I can win I can lose, I can pick I can choose I can do what I want, in this world. But the most logical factor, the one that I am after is that, that being myself,
I AM I.

SALIM LOXLEY

Dr. Sharman, Mrs. Smyth, guests, teachers, students and fellow graduates.

I am honored to have been Jr. High President this year. It was an educating experience and has taught me a great deal about the students and my fellow classmates who attend St. John's. Everyone contributed to this year's success making my job truly rewarding.

This is a very special day for most of us. It marks the end of our Jr. High years and the beginning of harder and more challenging times. We've gone through a lot together striving to reach this memorable day. And though we are eager to move on, a part of us holds us back, as we remember our past three years; years which were filled with happiness, anger, and sorrow; years in which we've all shared our good times, our triumphs, our victories, and our lonely times, sadness, and defeats.

But soon those times will only be memories. Next fall, we will begin another part of our life. To the graduates of 1984, I wish you all the happiness and success in the years to come and may you all achieve your life's ambitions. To those of you who will return to Jr. High - work hard and keep the spirit of St. John's alive.

In closing, I'd like to thank Mr. Leggero, Mr. Bochinski, and Mr. Burdeny for all their help and guidance. Also, a special thanks to my vice-president, Michelle Wiese for the great assistance she gave me.

Rachel Wagner

VALEDICTORY

Principals, Teachers, Parents and Fellow Students.

I find it very difficult to summarize the past three years, for they have been filled with many sad and happy moments. We all have had successes and failures in Junior High. These successes and failures have hopefully made us better human beings.

In grade seven we came to St. John's not really knowing what to expect. What we found here were patient and supportive teachers. Our successes in Junior High are partially their successes, for if it were not for them we would not have gained the knowledge that we did.

On behalf of the graduates I would like to thank the teachers for not giving up on us when we did not understand. I realize now how much poise and self-control you must have had at those moments.

I would also like to mention the parents without whose support the past three years would have been less successful. I would like to thank the parents for their love, patience and understanding throughout Junior High.

Finally to my fellow graduates I would also like to say that today is our last day in Junior High. We are enriched by the knowledge we have gained in the past three years but we are saddened by the expiration of our Junior High years. Nevertheless it is enlightening to know that those years will remain in our memories for many years to come. Next year we will be entering Senior High. The foundation we have gradually built up in the past three years will determine how well we accept the challenges of Senior High. But success can only be acquired through continued effort to achieve excellence. My advice to you is to try to meet the challenges the future brings.

In closing I would like to wish this year's graduates happiness and prosperity in the future.

Farewell Junior High.

Zubda Ahmad

graduates

9-102 MR. J. WERNER

DECLAN ALPHONSO: Declan is the class prez. He can be seen playing with girls at lunch.
