FOREWORD:

We are proud to present our St. John's High School TORCH of 1959. As you turn the pages of this annual, you will recall many happy events that are already slipping into the shadows. These are the moments that the TORCH staff has attempted to preserve. Keep this album and treasure it for it is your remembrance of 1958-59.

Another June has rolled around and the 1959 edition of the Torch is again history. We hope that this annual will furnish the student body with a full coverage of all activities, presenting a mosaic of our life at St. John's. Within these pages are portrayed the academic, cultural, and social cross-sections of the school year — all the warmth of pleasant memories. There are many impressionable incidents that are incorporated into these memoirs of school life. We shall never forget our variety concert, our Freshie and Sophomore dances, the soccer and basketball championships, Graduation, and the innumerable activities which have made this year at St. John's as wonderful as it was. The Torch enables us to retain these memories.

Many years after Graduation Day, we shall read through the pages of this book again, eagerly looking for some word, some line, or some photograph that will help us relive those unforgettable school days. We shall smile at our write-ups and try to recall our feelings as we embarked upon the first steps to a new life outside high school; or we may imagine ourselves sitting in class, lounging at the drug store, playing a game, or engaging in the countless events which have been recorded in this book. We shall visualize old friends, old teachers, the latter whom we may now understand better than in the past. Then, perhaps, nodding our heads we shall sigh longingly for those carefree days of years gone by. At that time we will realize the significance of the Torch in the lives of its students, but more so, what St. John's means to us as individuals.

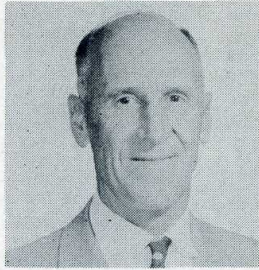

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

On the billboards advertising Education Week this year there appeared the slogan 'Learn More—Earn More', implying that earning power increases with each additional year spent in formal education. Undoubtedly there is much truth in the slogan — it pays, in dollars and cents, to go to school—but the material money is only a fraction of the real value of education. As our 350 graduates leave St. John's this year I doubt that each can assess the value of the years spent here—how much are the friendships formed worth? What is the value of your appreciation of the extra-curricular activities, the cultural arts in which you participated? Can you estimate the value of trained expression, of logical explanation and clear reasoning? Did you come to school merely to learn more for your own selfish enjoyment? Or did you learn to give more to the betterment and improvement of your fellow-man? And do you realize that education is a continuing process — that you are merely graduating from one phase to another—that the habits of thought and action formed here will continue—to your profit or detriment as the case may be?

To those who have thus far failed to find the true aims of education we would say that in the continuing years there is still hope—if you know your weaknesses you can correct them. To the vast majority who have caught, while here, some glimpse of real values we wish good luck—seek wisdom and pursue it—and the world will be better because you have followed the Torch. Usque ad Astra.

Dedication*

Is this a diploma which I see before me,
Its ribbon toward my hand? Come, let me clutch thee.
I have thee not, and yet I know I will.
Art thou not, lovely vision, sent to me
To be mine own tonight? Or art thou but
That ideal of mind, that fair creation,
Long-cherished in my study-blessed brain?
I see thee now, in form as desirable
As that I dreamed I saw—.

Thou marshall'st me the way that I was going;
And promised such a reward I was to win.
Mine eyes have seen thee oft in all my dreams,
A prize worth all the rest, I see thee now,
And with thee, bits of ribbon tied in bows,
Fairer than hoped before. This is the thing
For which I studied all that would inform
And train mine eyes. Now with any happy class,
The race is won, and all our dreams, long-sought,
Are ours to keep. As we celebrate
Our glorious victory, we would here and now
Thank every teacher, every friend, who helped,
Be patient watch, to hold our steady pace,
And guide our rambling strides toward the design
We longed for most. Now, sure and firm-set earth,
Watch all our steps, which way they walk, and bear
The very stones prate of our whereabouts,
And take the present honour of the time
For future promise. Classmates, may we live
That words to deeds their noblest spur may give.
We go, our school work done. The world invites us.
Hear it, my classmates, for it is a bell

That summons us to action. Now, farewell!

*With all due apologies to Shakespeare.

VALEDICTORY

Today we, the class of '59, stand at the crossroads of our lives. For on this day we must part with our former world of dreams and delusions to enter the realistic world as responsible adults. When we leave our classrooms at the end of this term we will be more confident and better equipped to further our education, or, if we choose, to seek a place in our community. Through the guidance and efforts of our fine teachers we have realized the importance of goodness, patience, diligence and perseverance. We shall endeavor to maintain the pattern set by our teachers and to follow in the footsteps of the many illustrious men and women who at one time or another during the past half century were students at St. John's. Their motto was "Usque ad astra" and this will be our motto for we too shall look up to the stars and aim for honor and success.

Upon entering St. John's we were strangers to one another. We regarded each other timidly and perhaps with a little apprehension. Yet in some miraculous and unique way our various nationalities, colors, and creeds were welded into lasting friendships. Our shyness and fears were replaced by understanding and co-operation, and in a short time we discovered that to accomplish anything we had to work together. We learned to respect the beliefs of others yet to cherish our own more dearly. And so when the sands in the hourglass of school activity will run out we shall look back with fond memories at those fleeting years of school life.

Our cherished, ever-lingering memories will carry us back to the exams we thought we would never pass . . . the evenings at the football games . . . the track and field and basketball championships . . . the generous donations during the Christmas Cheer Drive. Yes, all these busy and joyous moments will come back to us. At that time we thought such activities were "holidays" from classroom study; yet, in reality, we were being prepared for life's long journey. During these events a keen sense of competition and good sportsmanship was being instilled in our young impressionable minds; we were learning that life is one constant struggle for self-improvement; we came to understand what it is to be loyal to a cause—to something for which we as a school stand.

They say that "praise like gold and diamonds owes its value to its scarcity". Those of us who have had the good fortune to attend St. John's know that the praises we express about it today are most deserving. For, we have found that in so many ways St. John's follows the ideals of our parents who had great faith that our teachers would do their best to mould our characters. They knew that we would find good friends whose encouragement would strengthen us during the difficult moments in our lives. Today therefore we express our heartfelt thanks to our parents for everything they have done to help us be good students and worthwhile citizens.

We believe that the world we are leaving is more secure than the one we are entering. By all accounts of the international situation an ever-present threat of a disastrous nuclear war looms over us like a dark cloud. In life there will be pressures from all sides trying to break our resistance against that which is evil. Situations will arise that will force us to compete with others who in many ways will be more experienced and superior than we. Yet with all these hurdles of life to meet and to clear, we are confident that with God's help and the training received during these past years we shall succeed for we have discovered that our "greatest glory lies not in never falling but in rising every time we fall".

We know that we can only score when we have a goal and so ours, on this momentous day, is to "possess beauty without vanity, strength without insolence, courage without ferocity, and all the virtues becoming man without acquiring his vices." If we accomplish this we shall be leaders, successful in life, and a credit to our parents, our teachers, and St. John's. And this can only be acquired by striving for high ideals, by making full use of our God-given talents, and by cultivating a golden character, for "education without virtue is of very little value."

With respect, admiration, and gratitude in our hearts, we sincerely thank the members of the staff of St. John's for their help and interest in us these past few years. May this, our big day, be their reward for they have accomplished so much in so short a time and for this we shall be ever grateful.

Now, like grown-up children leaving their mother's side, we too are leaving the halls of St. John's. The time has come to bid farewell to thee St. John's, our Alma Mater. Let this not be a good-bye but rather an "au revoir", for no matter where our ship of fortune may take us, whether on a sea of calm, storm, wind, or darkness, the light of thy torch shall lead us on. With God's help and those qualities of friendship, understanding, competition, loyalty, and tolerance which we found with you we shall "departing, leave behind us footprints on the sands of time" and, as we go along life's journey, we will always remember "to strive, to seek, to find and not to yield."

AWARDS

EUGENE SENICKI

This year's recipient of the Governor-General's Medal was one of our most outstanding students, Eugene Senicki.

Besides being President of our student council Eugene managed to obtain high marks. Eugene excelled in Track and Field, winning for two consecutive years the trophy for the highest number of points for an individual. He starred as top scorer on our victorious basketball team and played on both city and provincial all-star basketball teams. Eugene was active in a number of clubs, including square dancing, tumbling and ballroom dancing. He appeared on our radio programme as a panelist and also on our television show. This active student participated in our Variety Concert and was also president of his class.

Teachers and students salute him as a worthy recipient of this honor. We look to him to carry into the future the fine standards that he has established here.

Good luck to you, Eugene.

STAFF AWARDS

ANDY DILAY

Andy Dilay is one of the Staff Award winners this year. He has obtained one of the highest averages in Grade XI, something to really be proud of. Last year he was awarded a School Board Prize. Andy has starred in Track and Field and was tied for first place in the Junior boys division for which he received a cup. Last year he was a member of our rugby team and for two years he has been a helpful member of our basketball team. Andy is active in the tumbling, square-dancing, and ballroom dancing clubs, appeared on our television show and also played the piano for our Variety Concert. Besides this he finds time to teach piano.

Andy hopes to enter the Faculty of Science at the University of Manitoba where he will continue his studies.

We wish him well as he goes to other fields of endeavour.

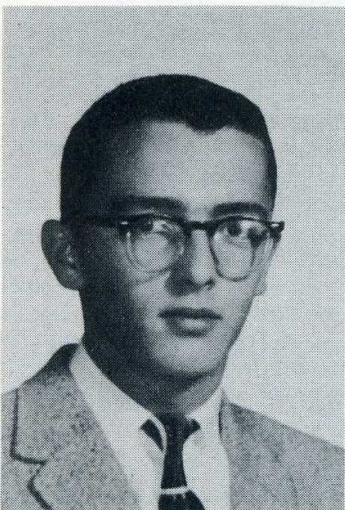

MICHAEL LEVIN

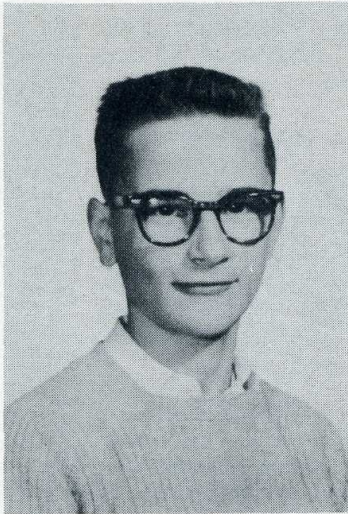

A Staff Prize was awarded to Michael Levin for 1958-59. His academic record has earned him the Chartered Accountancy Award and a Memorial Scholarship. Last year he received a School Board Prize. He was Business Manager of this year's Torch for which he deserves much credit. For two years Michael won events at both St. John's and Inter-High Field Days and was also a member of our successful basketball team. Mike was active in the square dance club. On our radio programme he appeared as a panelist. One of our representatives to the Model United Nations Assembly, he was interviewed on the Warren Davis Show.

Michael plans to enter the Faculty of Science at the University of Manitoba next year. Our good wishes go with him.

Keep up the good work, Mike!

STANLEY DUDZIK

Room 40

LOIS BERNHARD — During the year, "Punky" could be seen making frequent trips down to the office . . . for absentee slips, of course. Our "reliable" secretary is also under the powerful domination of her boy friend, who incidentally is 6 feet 2¾ inches tall. So watch out, boys.

BERNARD "BUZZY" BLAZEIKA — "Buzz" is part of the Buzzy, Ron and Norm quadrumirate that has panel discussions on Bridget Bardot in French periods. One of the spark plugs on the Senior Soccer Team, he is a swell all-round guy.

RON BODNER — "Mike", the D.J. at the "Y" can be found polishing records or dreaming of ways to customize his car—somehow he never seems to get around to doing it. This "gangling" youth was also a member of 40's bowling team.

ARNOLD COODIN — Arnie's actions speak louder than his words mainly because he doesn't say much. His chief activity during the year consisted of filling English notebooks. Although not noisy, he's still a nice guy, liked by all.

RON DOLYNCHUK — Besides being a member of the little French (?) conversational group of Ron H., Norm, and Buz, Ron is also an active member of Rm. 40's "Huckleberry Hound Fan Club". Ambition: To pass final French exams. Fate: Tossing coins with a certain French teacher.

STAN DUDZIK — "The Prince" can usually be found monopolizing conversation with ¼ of Room 40's female population during certain classes (with the teacher's willing permission, of course!) Stan will go far. How's that moon rocket coming along?

WALTER "VALENTINE" GALAGAN — A newcomer to our hallowed halls, Wally wasted no time in becoming well acquainted with the female students and an unnamed English teacher who is firmly convinced that Shakespeare is Wally's personal enemy. No ambition. Fate: English prof.

LARRY "BABY DOLL" GELLER — Room 40's walking encyclopedia is also the world traveller "Deluxe". Larry is absent as often as he is present, but he has a grand excuse—his pants are in the cleaners. Ambition: To conquer the world.

ED GRABINSKI — Ed doesn't say much, but what he does say is worth hearing. Most of the time, Ed's "ear" is Buchalter who can be heard softly asphyxiating from laughter in any Physics period. We won't be surprised to see Ed behind a big desk someday.

JIM GREEN — Jim doesn't like our climate and is threatening to move to California in the near future. A conscientious student, he is determined to calculate the wave length of sodium (so he says). Ambition: tie salesman. Fate: hangman.

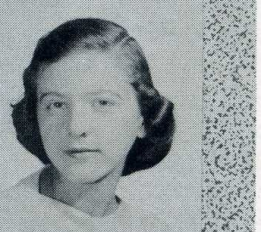

DAVE GRUBER — Dave comes to us from U.C. where he had a rather doubtful existence. All traces of his past have been destroyed, and he "ain't talkin'." Regardless of his silence, we all think that he's a swell chap.

RON HINTHER — The strong, silent type. Ron is also a devoted student — of hot-rod magazines, joke books, and on rare occasions, school texts. Ambition: Disk jockey. Fate: Cleaning turntables for Doug Burrows.

HELEN HNATKO — Helen graced us with her presence after getting Sisler-itis. She forms an essential part of the telegraph line between Lorraine and Bernice. Helen goes wild over mice (courtesy of Mr. Galagan). She can usually be found giggling with Marvyne.

LORRAINE HUZEL — The hazel-eyed blond of Rm. 40 can always be caught batting her eyelashes at certain "unsuspecting" males. She is involved in most school activities (providing boys are present). Pet Peeve: Galagan. Ambition: Married movie queen. Fate: Single washer woman.

MARTIN IVENIUK — During noon hours, "Ivy" can usually be found in "Martin's Hideaway" playing host to selected St. John's females. Ambition: educated bum. Fate: taking refresher courses at St. John's.

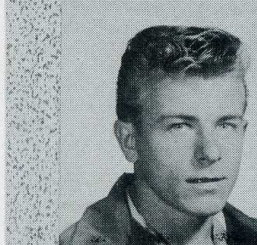

MARVYNE "CUDDLES" JENOFF — During the year Marvyne spent most of her time avoiding Galagan's wise remarks, passing her ruler to Lois, and volunteering for everything. Every noon hour "Cuddles" could be found in Rm. 39½ creating "A thing of beauty and a joy forever."

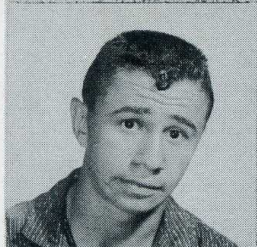

RON KOFFMAN — During the year "Moose" was one of the small circle of Rm. 40 students devoted to making the life of a certain French teacher more miserable. In addition to this noteworthy activity, Ron was one of the Rm.'s top bowlers.

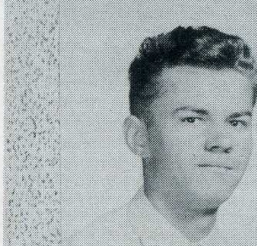

PETER KOHUT — Peter's activities consisted mainly of paying attention in class, and he is even suspected of doing Maths homework on week-ends! Pete's ambition is to be a mountie, but he'll probably end up on the wrong side of the bars.

BERNIE KONOPINSKI — He's handsome, shy, modest, and intelligent — so he says. But we know differently, don't we? Bernie spends most of his time winking at a certain female in his class, chewing his finger nails, and being "one of the boys". Ambition: To convince a certain lass that he is always right.

KEN "CHEETA" LANDER — One of the more studious (?) boys in Mr. Manishen's classes, is loved by all who know him. The topic of all his conversations is his "buggy", which has yet to beat a certain '52 Ford. Favorite word: "Guts"!

MANFRED LINNEMAN — Manfred is a very quiet and conservative young man, who says little and probably thinks less. Periodically, he has a tendency to be indolent, but this is due to his close association with the derelicts of Rm. 40. He is, however, an excellent student in German.

WALTER "POOPIE" MIROSH — "Poopie's" main ambition is to get enough courage to speak to the girls. This 6 ft. 3 in. frame totters with a female at present. Probable Fate: Polishing rusty nails at his father's boat yard.

DAN OCHOCKI — Handsome, suave, intelligent, Whoops — wrong person! Dan, another one of those Tech. Voc. boys who decided to thrill the girls at St. John's this year, can be seen frequenting "Martin's Hideaway" every noon hour. What's the attraction?

STEVE "JINX" PAKOLINSKI — A newcomer from Churchill High, Steve is the only student who has ever tried to assassinate Mr. Johnson with a blank pistol. Remember Steve, if at first you don't succeed—cheat! Our "jinx" will go far; it's about 2,000 miles to Alcatraz.

ALLAN "PEJOGIN" PARKER — Al, the artist of Room 40, jumped at the chance to be our social and ticket representative. Where are all the parties, Al? Favorite pastime: Bugging "Poopy". Ambition: Aeronautical engineer. Fate: Button pusher at Cape Canaveral.

ROY PASIEKA — Roy kept his own custom by appearing at 9:05 each morning. "We Hawkeyes are subordinate to no one," he claims. He has no trouble with his homework — he doesn't do any.

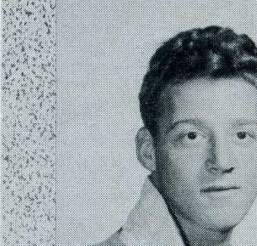

BRUCE RAICHMAN — This tall, dark, and handsome native of Saskatchewan is well liked by all. The poor soul had a locker next to that of three annoying girls who were forever in his way. Pet Peeve: French.

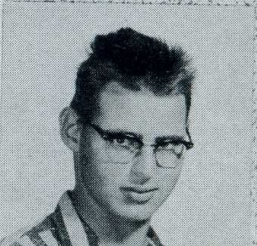

BILL "WILLIE" RYSIEU — One of the members of 40's fabulous bowling team. Willie is also a swimmer. His favorite pastime: Sleeping through English periods. Usually quiet, Willie occasionally comes out with a wise crack that reveals his inner self.

DENNIS SCHETTLER — Brains, looks, personality and sportsmanship are all part of our Dennis. He spent most of his time playing football and basketball and telling about his wild parties during French classes. Favorite Expression: If you had a brain, you'd be dangerous.

DON SHAPIRO — Don lives mainly for French periods when he can usually be seen taking his daily stroll or trying to find out what holds desks together. He was active in tumbling and was a frequenter of Club Salter Drugs.

MARVIN SILVER — "Fly Boy" thinks flying, talks flying, and probably dreams flying. To Mr. Manishen's dismay he also spends 11/12 of his French period talking to Sorensen about, you guessed it — planes. Ambition: Guess!

GORDON SORENSON — Gord is versatile in the sciences and all aspects of school work. Gord, who is liked by the "select group" (teachers), tells us of his "mad" experiments, and claims to be the only one able to disprove scientific data in Superman Comics.

STEVE STANKOVIC — A newcomer to Tech; Steve generally keeps up a good academic record in all subjects except Physics. "I get all mixed up in this!", we can hear him crying. But he is a swell guy to have around and we know that he will become a great physicist someday.

KEN WIENS — Ken does well scholastically, concentrating at all times on his work. He must be the strong, silent type, as we haven't heard a word from him yet and we're not going to aggravate him to satisfy your curiosity.

PAUL WONG — "Little Confucius" can usually be found reading Maths tables. He is one of the quieter boys in the Room— if there are any. Paul is very fond of Chemistry, Maths, Physics, and Violins. Pet Peeve: Literature.

NICK YACHESON — Nick, a scrawny-er, brawny athlete, was one of the football players that came from 40. His tall figure, clad in a Road Knights jacket, could generally be seen in front of "Club Salter Drug" at 8:55 or 1:25 engaged in "bumming a smoke."

ALLAN "ZAZU" ZAJAC — The "reliable president" of Rm. 40 can actually brag of marking the roll twice. He also has a very special technique of keeping the class quiet. Too bad Mr. MacFarlane didn't approve, Al. Our "Zazu's" activities range from captain of the football team to smuggling new girls into class.

NORMAN ZOPPA — One of the more original lads in Rm. 40. He can think of more ways of asking for your homework than anyone else. His best friends are those who don't know him. All kidding aside, he's really a terrific guy.

CAROLE BEAMISH — Carole has the most contagious laugh in our room and shows it constantly in Literature classes. A smart student, she can be counted on for aid. Although her future is undecided, she can always resort to swiping sugar cubes or "ushering"!!!

ELEANOR BRETHAUER — Eleanor supports the school motto "Usque Ad Astra". In fact, in Chemistry, she not only reaches for the stars, she aims for them. An avid history student, she hopes to become a teacher. She believes you should laugh today for tomorrow the teacher may hear the joke first.

RON DUBINSKI — A newcomer to Tech. this year, Ron soon adapted himself to the ways of our school (he sleeps in class). Ron was a member of the Blue Bombers Band and was one of the lucky few to go to the Grey Cup.

GLORIA FIRMAN — Gloria's ambition is to grow fingernails on her right hand, but her Chemistry marks prevent this. Another candidate for Teacher's College. She is presently occupied with revising Romeo and Juliet into a 20th century romance. Also, co-writer of write-ups.

FLORINE FOGEL — Our female "Liberace"'s goal is to be a lab Technician or an Auto Wrecker. A swell kid, Flo laughs at your jokes even when you both don't understand them. Between playing Charades in French class, "footsies" in English, and associating with M.D.'s, Flo managed some enviable marks.

SHEILA FOSSNER — This petite miss observed the "silence is golden" policy. In many of our classes, Sheila was here in body but not in mind. We were sorry to see her leave us earlier this year and wish her every success in the future.

SHELDON GLASS — Sheldon is an avid student who helped produce Room 31's spectacular variety show. He can usually be seen warming himself in front of some radiator in the hallway. Sheldon is also the basso profundo of the Four H's.

RON GOLOVITCH — Ron, one of the members of the Four H's quintet, is honorary president of the St. John's Hall Loungers Society. This good-looking accomplished student (so he tells us) is a star of the Varsity Basketball Team.

Room
31

GERD HENKE — One of the quieter members of Rm. 31, Gerd manages to do well in his academic work. (This is an outstanding achievement for our room.) Gerd also had the good fortune of playing on the champion Junior Soccer Team.

BOB KINGSMILL—Bob is one of the more outstanding students in our room. This handsome athlete is always telling us that he has to beat the girls off with a club. Bob was also one of the stars of the Varsity Basketball Team.

ALICIA KOWALISHIN — This capable nurse can be found "probing" into our "major" Biology operations with great precision and accuracy. Her leisure time is spent in the library where her attention is divided between her doting fans and the M.C.C. books.

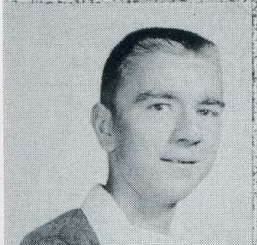

SAUL LOVE — Saul's greatest ambition is to blow up Tech. during one of our lab. periods. The closest he came was spilling sulphuric acid on his hands. Saul enjoys French periods because this is the only time he can get "Flo" to laugh at his jokes.

BILL LUCIW—Bill is one of the strong, silent types who never gets in trouble with the teachers—well almost never. Bill is a hard-working student who is known for his "hard" looks.

GARY "ROCKET" MARANTZ— "Rocket" is one of the well adjusted youths of Room 31. An athlete and student of extraordinary ability, so he modestly admits, this popular individualist is sure to get far, when he graduates in 1966.

BILL MIHILL—"Willy" is one of the boys who keeps Nordics in business with his splendid attendance. Bill left us in mid-term to try his luck in the business world and we wish him well.

MARVIN MIROCHNICK—Marv, the only pupil in the school with a handlebar moustache, is the envy of all the girls in our room. This man with golden arm-er-voice, was sports announcer on our school radio show.

BILL MOSS — The energetic sports captain of our room (he gets his energy by sleeping all day in school) modestly admits that he is God's gift to women. Billy is one of the fortunate few who belongs to the Four H's.

CLAUDIA PASKOV—Our room's Sarah Bernhardt took part in the Variety Concert. Her ambition is to successfully sleep through a double period of French. Her motto is—"Thou shalt not fall asleep in class unless nothing interesting is happening." Why the interest in Edmonton?

TOM PESCLEVICH — "Pepsi" much to our distress always kept the rest of our class awake during the literature periods with his loud snoring. Unfortunately, Tom left us in mid-term to try his luck in the business world. We of 31 wish him the best of luck.

DON PHIMSTER — Gene Krupa of Rm. 31 is noted for his cool beat on the drums. He was fortunate to leave the Rm. 31 madhouse before he became one of its permanent inmates. Don now works at C.B.W.T. and we wish him well.

ARNOLD POLLOCK — "Arnie" masterminded, directed, and even acted in Rm. 31's spectacular variety show. Arnie is an avid French and History student and seems to enjoy himself in these classes. His cracks always keep the class in stitches.

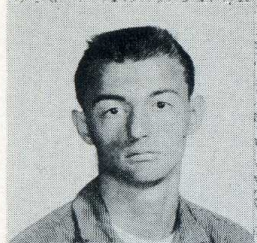

OKSANA POWARCHUK — This girl's favourite subject is "Chemistry"??? She is always willing to lend a book or a smile to the boy across the aisle in French. She prefers the finer things in life like classical music. By the way, why the prolonged Christmas holiday?

BARBARA REID — Barbara is ready to enter the Olympics due to her considerable practise in outrunning Verna to reach the mirror. Our sports captain can be heard remarking "Girls, did you know we had to play a game half an hour ago?" One of the nicest kids in our room.

MARILYN ROGERS — This pert, charming miss can be found constantly conspiring with Alice. Her ambition is to be a figure dressed in white—that is, before the little white figures carry her away. Marilyn's present occupation is buying gum with bottle refunds.

RON SAWIAK — This great French linguist hopes to get a job at the U.N. With his ability he is sure to start a war! Ron also played inter-high soccer and took part in inter-room sports.

PERRY SILVERMAN—Perry, the "dark horse" of our room, is rarely seen by the rest of the class. One of the quieter members of 31, Perry secretly confided to me that he plans to go to university and become a biologist.

ALICE STERNAT — Alice is the second half of the Rogers-Sternat Mutual Admiration Society. Although she would like to be the only female to join the Foreign Legion, she will settle for teaching. She hopes to find a secret exit from our room before noon.

VERNA UNGRIN — Verna is ready to resort to a revolution to have elevators installed in school. Having chosen teaching as a future career, she is presently occupied being a soda "jerk". She spends her Literature periods laughing with Carole and Gloria.

BENSON WINCURE—"Sleepy", the Rhodes Scholar of Room 31, is another one of our well-adjusted youths who sincerely enjoys school life. (He's a quiet sleeper.) Benson wishes me to mention as an afterthought that he was also a superstar of the football and basketball teams.

BERNIE WOLCHOCK — Bernie, another member of the Four H's, modestly admits that he is the best Chemistry student in Room 31. One of Tech's grid stars, Bernie's main ambition was to make the Varsity Basketball Team. Bernie also had the honor of being elected Class President.

BARBARA WOLK—Our popular vice-president's ambition is to be an acid-taster; doom — one disintegrated Barbara. Although undecided about her future, she would be happy to orbit in space in a rocket solely occupied by herself and some handsome chap. Her present occupation is being witty.

GLENN WOOD — Glenn, one of the happy-go-lucky guys of our room, was the successful head of our Christmas Cheer Fund (and we hope he enjoyed the food). Glenn was another who left us in mid-term for the business world. Good luck!

JACKIE DELBRIDGE — Jackie is a kid who is well-liked by all. When not dreaming about "her Dick", Jackie is bowling, curling, or combing her beautiful red hair. She "graciously" volunteered to be our room's Red Cross Representative.

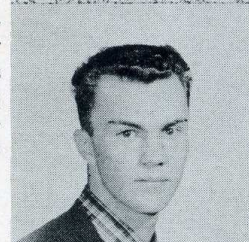

DOREEN FELDMAN — The "infant" of Room 18, adds a bit of British flavour to our room. When not talking about R.C. she keeps Hugh and Lionel spellbound with tales of "Merrie Olde Englande."

GLYNIS HENRY — Henry is one of the boys. When not talking or skating, she can usually be found kibbitzing with "Muckluck". Recently she placed third in a National Ice Skating Competition.

TOM KING—This innocent-looking boy is not quite as innocent as one might think. Tom seems to find endless pleasure in teasing a certain J.D. He is the stronghold of the Senior Basketball Team.

HUGH KOROL — Our "deluxe" style ticket representative is a whiz for homework. (He never takes a book home.) Hugh's main interests range from girls, to pool, to more girls. He is constantly feeling tired. I wonder why?

MARY ANN MEDER — The "vivacious" blond (is it real?) leader of our cheer leaders is always doing something constructive. A girl who believes in o"REG"inality, Mary Ann's interests include square-dancing, piano playing, and causing tie-ups on the centre stairs.

JOYCE NEIGHBOUR — Joyce, who shows much ability in Maths, is very easy to get along with. Her quiet personality is an asset to our room. Who's the mysterious Mr. "O", Joyce?

LAWRENCE OLYNICK — This poor invalid has had more ailments than "Old Aunt ---", but it doesn't stop him from visiting "Joanne". He exercises his lungs with Miss Knapp's choir and he modestly admits that he has a wonderful voice.

SHEILA PEARLMUTTER — Another of the quieter contributors to our room, she claims she can work in the mayhem of Room 18 during study periods. We hope she is rewarded for her earnest studies.

MIKE ROBINSON—If you want to eliminate someone in "one easy lesson" call on "Big Mike". After a year of wandering and working (sure, Mike), he returned to St. John's to roam our halls with "Pepsi" and the rest of the boys. Why the seat in the back of the room, Mike? (Crunch, crunch!!!)

LIONEL STEIMAN — Lionel is Room 18's psychologist. He often suggests that most of us poor teenagers are "emotionally insecure". Kidding aside, Lionel is a well-liked kid who helped Miss Knapp's Baritones all year.

EILEEN SUNDERLAND—"Muck-luck" (one of "Gopher's" many names) is a recruit to the nursing profession. Eileen always seems to be forgetting her notes. She surprised herself as well as everyone else, by passing all her x-mas exams.

BERNICE WOOLLARD—Tagged with the nickname "Humour" this "cute chick" shows ability academically. She is still trying to win an argument with Miss Ross. Her interests range from bowling, dogs, birds, boys, to "J.B."

ANITA BULSTEIN — Anita is Room 12's pint-sized Miss Versatility. Her many activities include drama, Canteen, Curling, upsetting Mr. Beer, and chasing Eli around the Torch Room. Kidding aside, Anita really deserves a special pat on the back for her terrific work on our yearbook.

BARRIE CHEKOSKY — Good old Chester, er - - that is Barrie is our handsome 6-foot "Playboy." When not skipping classes and bothering teachers or girls, he's usually sleeping. His antics never fail to amuse us, although they are nerve-wracking to the teachers.

MARK DOCTOROFF—This East-end kid is a real "Karacter" and our class joker. He's also the first guy ever to cook his own soup—right in the room! A future chartered accountant and our class vice-president, Mark is responsible for making our long days at school almost agreeable.

KEITH DRYBURGH — Keith's a really likeable guy — well, his mother is kind of fond of him anyway! One of our sportsmen, he participated in soccer and hockey (and he's got the bruises to prove it). Keith is a hard worker, and a marvelous dancer.

GERALD DUDECK—One of our taller (?) boys, Jerry is seldom seen but always makes himself heard. His remarks during Mr. Beer's lectures are a panic to everyone but Mr. Beer. With his luck and ability, Jerry hopes to finish Grade 12 by 1963, however . . .?

MELVIN FOGEL—Another member of the Rm. 12 Card Club, our "little rock" stays awake long enough to hear his name read over the PA for detention. A real "gunner" for the inter-room basketball team, Mel's cracks add to the general spirit of Rm. 12.

HENRY GOY — Here's one guy with a knack for being kicked out of class. What's your secret Henry Kue? Besides keeping busy with girls and school, Henry played goalie for CUAC City Champs. Kidding aside, Henry (Named from the Comic Strip) is really a great guy.

GILBERT HECHT — Gilbert is one of Mr. Pastuck's favourite (?) pupils. His activities include sleeping, sneaking in late, and bowling. For some unknown reason Gilbert's pet peeve is exams.

Room

MIKE HLADY — Mike is St. John's gift to women. Wotta build! Too bad girls, we hear he's taking. Mike starred as a flanker during the football season. Favorite Expression: Gimmi a redhead or a blonde!

CORINNE HOCHMAN — Some people have it, some don't; Corinne has it—but don't worry, it's not catchy. One of the nicest kids in the room, "Cobby" can always be counted on for high marks. Her pet saying is "I'm lonesome"—Could it be a certain S.K. in St. Paul?

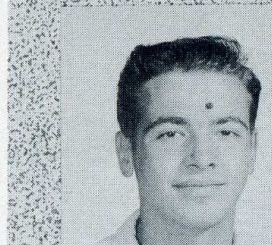

RICHARD HOWELL—Richard is one of the later members of our class — meaning 9:01. He's a pretty quiet guy — but they say you have to watch the quiet ones. Rich played halfback for R. P. this year. Ambition: Architect. Fate: Late room supervisor.

LINDA ISEMAN — One of the quieter members of our room (in chemistry?), this studious kid is a brain in Maths, is on the Torch Staff, and participated in inter-room Sports (hasn't much of a choice with only 8 girls in the room). We all wish Linda the best of luck in her chosen profession.

CHARLES KLABUNDE—Charles' main aim in life seems to be to have fun. He played on the Senior Soccer Team and is an active member of the GTUC (Give Teachers Ulcers Club). His main interest in school lies in "bugging" Mr. Johnson but he seems to find the girls pretty interesting too.

ALEX KORN — This big fellow played tackle for the Tigers. Though he doesn't particularly like school (so who does?) he claims it's a pretty fair pastime. Al spends most of his time annoying Mr. Beer or "kibbitzing" with his pal Marvin.

ARCHIE KRAUT — Never seen, never heard, but always gets good marks — that's our boy Archie. The room pianist, he is one guy that makes teaching enjoyable. Archie can be counted on to come panting into the room promptly at 8:59 and 1:29. So what if he does live right across the street from school?

JACK LONDON — This red-haired, freckle-faced hunk of man claims he knows all there is to know about women. Well, you have to admit he is a pretty "big man" with the girls. Knock! Knock! This combination of brain and brawn played tackle for R.P., and was also co-origiator of these writeups.

SAUL LONDON — An artist in his own right (doodling in Mr. Beer's periods) Saul is one of the quieter members of Room 12. An avid electronics enthusiast, this boy is the original "What Me Worry" Kid. Always calm, cool, and collected, Saul adds an air of respectability to the room.

BRYAN LUKIE—A mad camera bug, this boy has taken some excellent shots. Bryan does the photography printing for the Torch, and is also a staunch member of the Howell-Lukie-Motyka pact. His favorite expression is "What's with you?"

MEYER NIMCHONOK — "Nimchonok of the North" doesn't play by the rules—he comes to school to work! Meyer, the Movement will get you! Besides schoolwork, Meyer takes time out to play inter-room hockey and basketball, and is also an avid member of the Room 12 Card Club.

ALLAN PETERS — Al, our class president, is a shy? retired? quiet? boy? This guy's voice is almost as big as his smile, but not nearly as dazzling. A sharp dresser, Al's a big man with the girls who should go far . . . with the girls, that is .

ED PROKOPCHUK—Anyone for a little hunting or fishing? Then Ed's your man. Ed's big interest is taxidermy, believe it or not, and we hear he does his best work on teachers. A quiet guy, "Ivy-League" Ed excels in R.P.'s dancing classes.

CAROL RABER — This girl lives by the motto — "Work fascinates me . . . I can sit and watch it for hours." "Karl", as Mr. Burrows calls her, can always be seen bouncing around, talking, or giggling. Besides participating in sports and the choir, she is half-to-blame for these write-ups.

SANDY REKRUT — A whiz at Physics, Sandy spends most of his time looking at airplane pictures. A seemingly quiet kid, he manages to contribute his share of mischief. Sandy participated in inter-room hockey and managed to get good marks.

ROCHELLE RICE — The other half of Rice and Rice Inc., this delightful miss can always be seen catching up on the "latest". Her interests vary from a certain New Yorker to keeping busy as Torch Layout Editor and getting good marks. Favorite Expression: Sura-Fraida, that's mine!

SURA-FRAIDA RICE — Lovely, lively, and luminous describes our efficient secretary. Besides counting noses, Sura-Fraida keeps busy as Hi-Freshman editor and activities co-editor of the Torch. Always ready with a cheery smile, Sura-Fraida is well-loved by all.

MARVIN SAMPHIR — Alex's constant companion, Marvin is an avid Chemistry enthusiast. Some day he hopes to concoct a formula that will convey knowledge and thereby to do away with schools. The "bearded man" of Room 12, Marv's another member of our Card Club.

JIM SAWA—"Blondie" was the star quarterback on the Tiger squad this year. Jim, known as the "voice from the back of the room" seems to like everybody and everybody seems to like him. Quite an arrangement!

JANET SCOTT — Janet is the quieter (?) half of our renowned Scott twins. A very active gal, her activities include bowling, choir, Red Cross, and trying new hair styles (ugh!). Janet gets top marks at school, and we hear she's become a first-class food-pusher at the Mardi Gras.

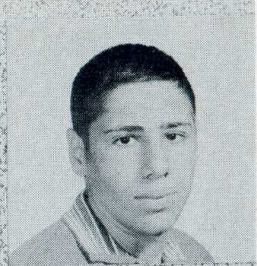

JOAN SCOTT—This pretty fraulein keeps busy as school secretary (sitting on the President's knee?). She also plays on the bowling team, gets high marks, and leads a very busy social life. She (or should we say they) is still playing the field, boys.

HARVEY SHPIEGEL — "Shiah", as he is fondly (?) called by his classmates, can usually be found with a tormented look on his face. A good-looking guy (so they say), Harv participated in inter-room basketball and the Rm. 12 Card Club. His favorite expression is "Hit me once more!"

LAWRENCE STOYKO — Lawrence is our mathematician, but doesn't have the heart for history. A fellow taxidermist with his cousin Ed, he truly seems to enjoy his afternoon naps in Room 5. He can also be found warming himself by the radiator in the hall before opening bell.

RUBIN TODRES — "Toad", the room jester, amuses himself by taking other people's money at cards. One of the Tigers' ace players (warm bench), Rube also participated in inter-room basketball. A really great guy, Rube is also honorary president of the Room 12 Card Club.

LARRY WACHAL — This red-haired "he-man" (he says) spends most of his time working on his book — "One Thousand Ways to Torture Teachers". This was Larry's second year on the Tiger squad. A firm believer in the five-day weekend, Larry is usually practicing it.

WAYNE WAGNER — Wayne is the sportsman of Room 12. He played football in the fall and hockey in the winter, and even had his name in the papers several times. He is a well-liked guy, whose favorite color is red (what a shirt!).

RICHARD ZABOLOTNY — Why does Richard sit all by himself in French? There are no girls back there, but maybe he can sleep without being seen (him?). A good guy and a hard worker, Zabo's main interest in school lies in inter-room sports.

JERRY DRAGON — Jerry is another quiet member of our huge class of 14 students. Jerry is an excellent worker, when his mind isn't on "What's her name again Jerry?" All kidding aside, we are sure that Jerry will do well in any field he chooses. "Good luck Boy."

BRYAN KURTZ — Bryan is an old veteran of St. John's. Bryan's hearty laugh can often be heard echoing in the halls. Bryan must think that every week-end is a "long" week - end because we never see him in school on Mondays. We wish him all the success in his future plans.

WALTER KUSHNIRYK—Walter, the artist of Room 22, can usually be seen looking around for someone to model for his drawings (preferably female). Wally took part in Ball Room Dancing and was one of Mr. Pastuck's star dancers. We wish Wally all the luck in his future plans. Good luck "KEED."

SANDRA MacKINNON—Sandra is known to most of us as Sandy. Sandy came to Winnipeg four years ago and is planning to go East again at the end of the school year. With her intelligence and personality we are sure she will go a long way. Good luck Sandy!

SYBIL DAIEN—Sybil is one of the quieter members of our class. She seems to feel that a front desk in Maths class will "protect" her from Mr. Promislow's questions. Sybil is one of the few "fortunates" who plays target for Mr. Dack's queries. We wish her all the luck in her future plans.

ADAM FERMAN—Adam is the second half of the B.C., A.F. combination. He spends most of his spare time in Miss Knapp's music room singing "love" songs to B.C. Adam plans to attend University in order to become an engineer. His ultimate fate is to raise "little engineers".

MARCIA KATZ—Marcia is one of the few fortunates in Room 32, who manages to obtain outstanding marks. The expression that "beauty and brains don't go together" doesn't apply to our gal. As Marcia's dates are many, they can well be labelled as the "57 variety" kind.

EUGENE KOGAN — This senior tumbler seems to have taken a tumble for a certain classmate. A skip on the curling team Eugene is continually "----ing" classes. Pharmacy must be in Eugene's future because he spends all his "spare" time at the Drugstore.

Honey thinks Maths is the "most funniest thing." During study periods, our little bundle of joy can be found "Bob"bing in and out of the room.

NADIA SAWCHUCK — Nadia's high standing in school helps to prove her popularity with the teachers. "Miss Sawchuck" serves as a favourite bull's-eye for Mr. Dack's questions. Her warm smile will surely help her to win more friends and make her successful in the future.

DEBORAH SEGAL — "Dolly," as she is called by all is Room 32's bubbling, blond. Her name is a source of confusion to Miss Christie, who insists on calling her "Daisy." Dolly plans to become a teacher. Could it be because she would rather be listening to excuses then giving them?

Her fate is raising little stage hands.

ADRIENNE STALL — Adrienne is known around St. John's as the girl with the coppery tan and white convertible. She can be depended upon for a late entrance in Math's class, and on early departure in History. Adrienne's wit keeps the back corner in stitches and has made her one of 32's favorite characters.

SHELDON STIER — Sheldon is the proud owner of a driver's licence, but why is he always looking for a ride home? His "masterpieces" in literature never seem to make a hit with Miss Christie. Sheldon's future plan is to finish Grade 11, and then establish himself as a manager of a "string of hotels."

FAY TESSLER — Fay is Room 32's "Laughing Cavalier". Her giggles keep the rest of the room, especially Marilyn, in hysterics. Fay's main interests are bowling, boys, and proving to Mr. Promislow that $23 \times 1 = 24$. Fay informs us that she has no definite future.

Nestor's future plans lie in the entertainment field. His ultimate fate is to become a "singing bartender?"

METRO YAKIWCHECK — Although Metro believes "Silence is Golden" he still has a way of winning many friends. He serves as a challenge to Miss Christie, who is determined to get him to volunteer to answer a question in Literature. Metro plans to enter M.T.I. where he will take a course in electronics.

EMMA ZAWATSKY — Emma is our attractive and efficient librarian. By the end of this school year, Miss Christie should become used to "Miss Handel's Pride and Joy" coming in late to her classes. Emma is planning to become a nurse after she finishes school. We wish her all the luck in the future.

ARNOLD BROOKS—Arnie is the only fellow in our room who comes to school to work. Although he has no plans for the future, he's sure to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

SANDRA BUTLER — Sandy is one of the brains in our room. Besides participating in many sports activities, she still has time to play "Saul"itaire. Ambition: Lab technician. Fate: Test-tube washer.

AVA-GAIL CAPLAN — Ava's laugh can be heard anytime, and everytime in French class, (poor Miss Bokofsky). This gal is well-liked by all. Ambition: movie-star. Fate: Lassie's double.

MARGARET COLLIER—Marg is one of the quieter girls in the room. She is interested in sports and music, and plans to become a nurse (Know any cute internes, Marg?).

Room
35

BRENDA COOPER — Brenda spends most of her time in dreamland. (We wonder why and so does Miss Whiteside.) She's always eating, but never gains weight. (How we envy her!)

JUDITH EDDIE—Judy is another quiet member of our room who also has hopes of becoming a nurse. She plays the piano and likes music. Best of luck in the future, Judy.

TREVOR FULCHER—Trevor's a real sweet guy who is always watching a certain C.K. He's a real great basketball player?? Ambition: printer. Fate: counterfeiter.

DIANE GILLIES — "I know that I'll never see, Geometry that isn't Greek to me." This is Diane's favourite complaint. She and her friend Helen Skull are inseparable.

GAIL GITTERMAN—Gail is the friendliest person in our room and the proud possessor of the highest average in "35". (This was attained with the help of a certain I.Y.) Gail has no definite plans for the future.

ARTHUR GUNN—Besides being one of the "Big Three", "Slim" is Miss Whiteside's favorite?? history student. Arthur is usually seen tearing around the school in his panel truck.

SHARON JAKUL — Sharon can always be heard giggling in French periods. She can always be found at the Salter Drugs, surrounded by boys. By the way "nurse" who's that special boy at Kelvin?

SHARON KAY—"Cherny" is the happiest girl in the room and proves it by giggling in History periods. We don't know what her plans for the future are, but we wish her the best of luck.

SHARON KEIL — Sharon is one of Miss Bokofsky's best French students and she manages to be tops in all other subjects, too. Her pleasing laugh, along with a terrific personality, help to make 35 the great room that it is.

LINDA KOSCHUK—Linda is one of the prettiest and popular girls in our room. (L.W. will vouch for that.) She participates in all sports and lately has been reading up on curling and hockey. (What's the reason, Linda?)

CARMEN KOSTANIUK — Carmen is another athlete in our room who took part in track and field and played on the inter-high volleyball team. She seems to enjoy ballroom dancing in P.T. periods (Is it the dancing or the partner, Carm??).

ARLENE KUSSIN—They say dynamite comes in small packages—that is our girl Arlene! This bundle of energy plans to become a nurse, but she also has other ambitions—boys, boys and more boys.

GORDON LONGMUIR — Could this be Carmen's dancing partner? Well Gord, give us the facts. This athlete can be seen running around the track with the girls (who's chasing who??).

AL (BERT) MILTCHEN — Some boys have looks, others have brains. But what about Al? Kidding aside, Al is one of the best looking in Rm. 35 with his Tony Curtis hair-do, dark eyes and curly lashes. He can usually be found at the drug store with the rest of the clan.

REBECCA MINDESS — This reliable gal is serving her second term (as class secretary we mean) in Rm. 35. "Rebby" keeps busy marking people absent when they're really present. One of the brainy girls in the class, she is Mr. Laycup's Pride and Joy.

SANDRA NEZON—Sandy keeps the whole class in awe and wonder with her hair-dos. When she got her driver's license she caused more accidents in one month than the city had all year. We wish her the best of luck in "U" next year.

LARRY PEACHELL — Larry was a championship soccer player for Rm. 35. Although one of the shorter fellows, he is very good at basketball (so he says). Larry plans to become an engineer. Fate: Porter.

JUDY SCHAFFER — For the last year, Judy has not been seen very often because a certain boy has been monopolizing her time. Maybe she should stay home More-ly. How about it Judy?

STAN SCHICK — Originally from St. Paul's College, Sam? er Stan Schick is the enthusiastic president of our room. He spends his spare time with the boys playing basketball and—not to be mentioned by request. I guess this leaves no time for girls, eh Stan?

MARIANNE SHALLEY — Marianne and Linda K. are great friends. This gal with the natural curly hair is planning to enter nursing after she finishes Gr. XI, and should make a good nurse if she keeps her mind on the work—not the internes.

FRANCES SINDER — Frances is a member of the Jakul - Adler - Sinder Corporation of Nurses. She played on the inter-room teams and was a member of Miss Knapp's choir.

HELEN SKULL — Although she is one of the smartest girls in our class, Helen doesn't let this go to her head. She participates in all activities and is a friend of everyone. Helen can always be seen with her other half—Diane.

HELEN SLOTNIKOV — Helen is the "petite" girl of 35 and surprises us all with her high marks. Even though she is quiet, Helen is one of the best-liked girls in the room.

ERNEST SLUTCHUK — The second member of the Big Three, Ernie is the only guy I know who would move from one house to another just to be closer to his girlfriend, R.B. Ambition: pharmacist. Fate: dope addict.

ROBERTA SLUTCHUK — This sweet innocent girl of Rm. 35 is usually seen in a certain Mr. H.'s little sports convertible. She's a real nice kid; it's hard to believe she's Ernie's cousin. Ambition: model. Fate: modelling Mr. H.'s sports car.

CAROL SPIVAK — Carol is a dark-haired girl with that Oriental look. Always ready to give a helping hand, she's well-liked by all. Although she isn't too fond of P.T., she makes up for it (fooling around) I mean, in other classes.

WINNIE SUNDERLAND — Winnie is one of the better athletes in 35. She played on the inter-high volleyball and basketball teams, took part in track and field, and still found time to work hard at her school studies.

LANA WOOD — Lana has a great sense of humour and keeps the entire class in stitches. She can be seen forever chuckling over something with her good friend Joyce. Ambition: teacher. Fate: She'll make it.

ELAINE ZASLOW — Elaine, a cheery member of our room, is a professional—-cracker (courtesy of Miss Whiteside). She spends her spare time reading Mr. Dack's history notes (courtesy of her boy-friend Allan).

36

GORDON "EVERYBODY'S DADDY" ANDERSON — The teachers' questions puzzle Gordon as much as Gordon's answers puzzle the teachers. Never seen without a smile, Gordon's cracks are always in place. His activities included inter-room soccer and basketball.

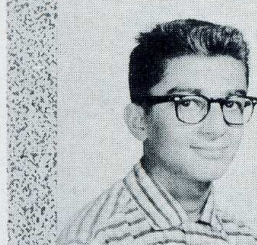

"BUSY" BRENDA BERCK — Brenda is our hard-working secretary-treasurer. Her other activities include basketball, volleyball, and keeping up a high average. Brenda plans to take home economics at University. We wonder why! Here's hoping, Brenda!

PETER "ELVIS" BRAUER — When not working hard at his books, Peter can be found making friendly gestures towards the girls. He rarely misses school (knock on wood), and faithfully attends choir practices.

JAN "LITTLE USELESS" BRONSTEIN—Jan is our triple threat: he can walk, run, and blow his nose while in a sitting position. Jan is interested in Electronics, and we wish "Our Hero" lots of luck in the near future.

"TEDDY BEAR" TED CHAMBER — Ted is one of our jolly Red Cross reps. His main aim in life seems to be to entertain Joe, and keep "Sleepy" awake. Ambition: Cartoonist. Fate: editor "Play-boy" magazine.

"MODEST" EDDIE COWAN — Eddie, who hails from Kelvin, manages top marks without studying (so he claims). This is one guy who can always be counted on for a witty remark, and who's well-loved by all.

ARTHUR "CONRAD" DONIN— The "professor" rushes into the room seemingly alert and ready to solve everything about anything. Nu?? Arthur has done some excellent photography. His favorite expressions include—"Oi vays mir", "That's life??", and "So I'm frustrated, so what?"

PHYLLIS "TOP BANANA" DUDECK — School life for Miss Dudeck was just "peachy-peachy" this year. She was our popular school Vice-President, Captain of the senior girls volleyball team, Girls' Sports Captain, sports editor for the Torch, and, by far the most important, a good student.

LARRY "UNDER - NOURISHED MOLECULE" DUTKA — What Larry lacks in size he makes up for in scholastic and athletic ability. A real chess fiend, he spends most of his time with the "Old Master" Ken. Larry's another one of Mr. Pastuck's "frustrated favorites."

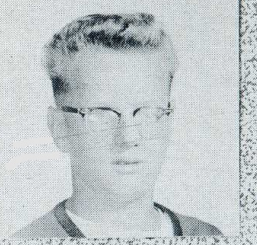

"BABY-FACE" JERRY FRIDELL —The Sexier half of the Wolfman-Fridell team, Jerry listens attentively in class. His activities included basketball, soccer, Tuesday French Club, and "making mit de eyes."

"MUSCLES" JOANNE HUNYCKI — Joanne is one of our hard-working Red Cross reps, and one of our many volleyball "spectaculars" (so the girls claim). Her ambition in life is to become a Pharmacist. Hope you make it, Joanne.

"GIGGLES" JIM JACQUES — As Sports Captain of Rm. 36, Jim represented us creditably on the undefeated junior Soccer Team. A hard worker, and a really swell guy, Jim's also a member of the Tuesday French Club (naturally!).

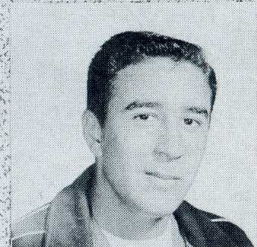

GARY "DADDY-O" KOCHANSKI —Every room has a hard rock and we're proud of our own "Road Knight". Why don't you bring your motorcycle to school, Daddy-O?? Gary excels in sports and is truthfully a terrific guy who's loved by all.

CORNELIUS "MR. CORRIE" KOST — Corrie is the mathematician and physicist of Rm. 36. His 98½ in Maths. rated first in the school. At times it seems as if this boy is as advanced as our Maths teacher. We predict a bright future for our "Mr. Kost".

GREG "TIGER" KURDYDYK — "Tiger" was the backbone of our soccer, basketball, and hockey teams. He has a habit of coming to school at 8:50 and walking into the room at 9:05. Love those detentions, huh Greg?

"FOXY" JOHN LISKA — John comes to school each morning with his hair combed, shoes shined, and shirt tucked in. This seems unusual, but we hear he finds it an ideal method for covering - up the crimes he's never blamed for, but usually the cause of.

"BLUSHING" BILL McLELLAN —One day Bill will surprise Mr. Manishen by having his homework done. Until that day comes, he and Mr. M. just won't see eye to eye. Bill hopes to become a geologist someday and one can't say he doesn't have the head (rock-head) for it. Ha, Ha!

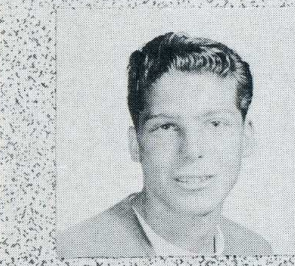

PAUL "LE FRANCAIS" NAJDA —In Mr. Manishen's French periods, Paul sounds like he just got off the boat, but he's proven to us more than once that he's an A+ student in every subject. We wonder how Paul would look in an Iroquois cut??

WALTER "GAUTIER" NIEWIERKOWIEC — Besides Mr. Dack, Walter was the only person who made an honest attempt to pronounce "Niewierkowiec". He's a hard worker who's noted for his jokes and anecdotes in almost every language but English.

"DREAMBOY" DAVE NOVIKOFF — "Walk in-Mambo Out", "Cha Cha, Cha Cha Cha!", "Elvis" is going through a stage. "Doddie" works hard, is good in sports, and is loved by all girls 12 and under. (I told you I'd get even!)

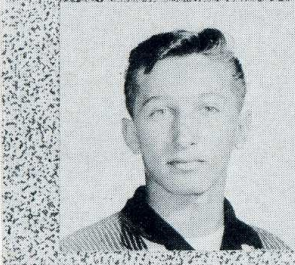

HARVIN (CENSORED NICK-NAME) PITCH — Harvin is the kind of student who can't seem to make any headway with a subject and then surprises you with a 90%. A real character, Harv was our most able Ticket Representative and was also interested in curling.

"COOL CAT" KEN PROKOP — Ken is the "Perry Como"-type student who takes most situations quite casually. Usually unheard and unnoticed, rumors circulating say he comes to life on "All Saint's Day". Ken works hard and hasn't an enemy in the world.

"TENNESSEE" ERNIE REWUCKI — Ernie believes in the beautiful and more cultured aspects of school life. Always smiling, this boy can always be counted on to lend a helping hand. A well-liked guy, Ernie spends most of his time "Kibbitzing" with Gordon.

"SILLY BILLY" BILL ROSEN — Comes field day, and Mr. P. expects Bill to set some new records. Because Bill works hard at anything he attempts, we are sure that his future will be successful. Favorite expression: "Shut up and deal!"

"ROMEO" BERT ROSS — Bert's marks were high and he was popular with everyone, including T.R. He excelled in inter-room sports, jokes, and wisecracks, and is a ladies' man from way back.

"SLAMMIN" SAM SARBIT — Sam was one of the few bright lights on the Tiger Squad this year. Though he spent most of his time at basketball, football, soccer, horseback-riding, eating bagel, and attending meetings and more meetings, Sam still found time to work on these write-ups.

"SLEEPY" JOE SAWCHUK — Joe can usually be found concentrating very deeply on L. Macbeth during his chemistry experiments. His other pastimes include shooting pool, attending the odd class, and counting sheep. Joe's a great guy, but throws a mean glance.

"TINY" SHEILA SHNOVSKY — Sheila is 36's silent bombshell. Towering over most of the boys, she's usually not annoyed during study periods and manages to get her work done. Her outside activities included inter-room volleyball and basketball.

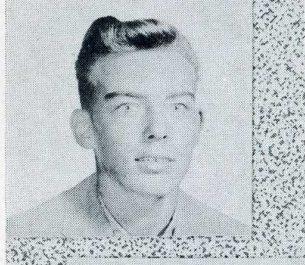

BOB "HUMPTY-DUMPTY" SNUKAL — Bob is destined to become another Albert Einstein. Nobody believed his molecular theory in Grade VII, but now we know. Bob reveals his true self in R.P.'s body-building classes. Knock! Knock! Knock!

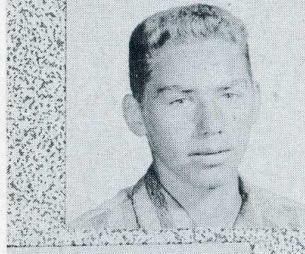

GARY "NOW YOU SEE HIM—NOW YOU DON'T" SUSSMAN — As long as St. John's remains, so will Gary. Though no one is too sure what course he's taking, it sure seems interesting. We're witch a boy, we're witch a!

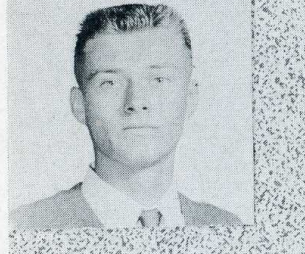

HYMIE "BIG LITTLE TINY JUNIOR" WEINSTEIN — Not only has "Big Little" been doing a tremendous job as President and Council Rep. of Rm. 36, but he does well scholastically also. A regular "teacher's pet", Hymie comes to school "First Class."

"WOLVER HAMPTON" KEN WHITE — Mr. Dack's query: "Are you in love?" was the $64,000 question. Ken, our social rep., is tall, blond, handsome, modest, a standout in all sports, and 50c is 50c.

"VERSATILE" SID WOLFMAN — Sid can usually be found comparing wrong answers with Jerry, and vice versa. He starred on our soccer, basketball, and hockey teams, and is a natural born athlete. Pet peeves: French and females.

CHARLES "CUDDLES" ZANT — Charles is another of R.P.'s overworked slaves. Referred to generally as Mr. Dack's "Striped Shirt Boy", he's one all-round swell guy who believes in studying (this belief seems to be contagious).

BRIAN CROPO — The original "before" in the Charles Atlas ads, Brian basks in the glory of his uncle's good name. This boy who "lends atmosphere" to the room manages to take all the many knocks good-naturedly. Favorite expression: Fresh meat!!

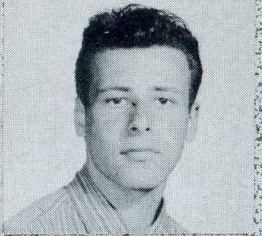

ANDY DILAY — Andy is Rm. 38's all-round man — or so he tells me anyway! Besides playing basketball and teaching piano on the side, Andy still manages to excel in track and field and get top marks. A big man with the girls, Andy is a good "Jo" who should go far, and we mean far.

ALLAN DOLENKO — A busy member of the Technonian sports staff, Al's he-man physique makes him the envy of all the boys and popular with all the girls. The quieter half of the Rebchuk-Dolenko duo, Al is well-liked by all.

SID FOLB—Sid amazed us all at Xmas with an "impossible" 99 in History. What a fluke! His many interests included curling, inter-room basketball, skipping Chemistry, complaining about school, and throwing things at Kudlac.

SHERMAN GREENBERG—Place: Rm. 38; Time: any day—9:07 a.m.; Enter: Greenberg. "Shoim" struggles to school just to show Miss Whiteside how much history, and Mr. Harder how little Chemistry he really knows. A good man in a "clutch", Sherman's another guy who takes the knocks like a man.

JANICE INGIMUNDSON — A quiet kid who is rarely seen without a smile, Janice has one unusual habit—she does her homework! Really! Janice is a lot of fun and is so popular with everyone, including teachers.

ELIZABETH KAMINSKY — "La petite femme" of Rm. 38, she can usually be found discussing the weekend with her pal Bernice. Liz is one member of Miss Knapp's choir who walks around the room singing all day.

JUDY KUDLAC—Just name an activity, and Judy's part of it. Besides being our room Sports Captain and Social rep., she played on all the inter-room teams and sang in the choir. Really "one of the boys", Judy spends her time telling "Little Moron" jokes to Andy and Mort.

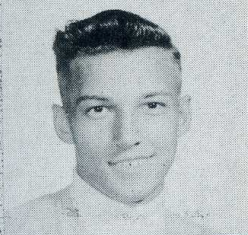

ARKY BERKAL — It has been suggested that Arky comes to school to catch up on sleep. Could this be true?? A quiet but well-liked guy, Arky is an avid sports enthusiast: he doesn't smoke, drink, or run around with women—maybe the kid's better off asleep!

DAVID BERNER — Our "Manners Movie-Star", Dave's prize possessions are his BB camp T-shirt and his dishpan hands. This boy can usually be found rolling down the aisles at his own second-hand jokes. His activities included working on the Technonian and Torch Staffs. He also played inter-room basketball.

TOM BILINSKI — Follow the doodles down the halls, and somewhere you're sure to find our busy Technonian art editor. As a sideline, Tom peddles men's underwear down at Eaton's. He plans to study at Montreal next year, and from there he intends to enter the R.C.A.F.

BAYLA BLUTSTEIN — A quiet, studious member of Rm. 38, Bayla is one of the few who can be found doing her homework during study periods. Bayla plans to enter University, and with her high marks we are sure she will succeed in any field she chooses.

ELIZABETH BURDZY — Liz amazes us all with her five-syllable words and her original history answers. A budding artist, Elizabeth plans to go in for interior decorating.

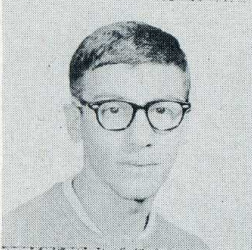

MAURICE CHUSID — Financial wizard of the Technonian, "Chos" is usually laughing at Eli's antics while mumbling — "This boy is sick!" A hard worker (during Latin?), Maurice spends most of his time "bugging" Simkin down in Rm. 3.

CHARLIE COLLINS—"Big C", a member of the Romalis-Collins "terrible twosome", is Rm. 38's contribution to the Stellars and the Junior Soccer Champs. Miss Whiteside's pet peeve, Chuck's quick wit is one reason for his popularity in the room.

MARK LEVENE—A real "beat" guy, "Marc" is God's gift to St. John's womanhood — or that's what he figures anyway. Mark's interests vary from girls, Playboy, and sports cars to sport cars, Playboy, and girls. Ambition: Free-lance journalist. Fate: Honorary copy-boy for the Techonian.

MICHAEL LEVIN — Our president occupies an important place on the Varsity basketball team — on the bench that is. Among his duties as Torch business manager and President of USY, Mike squeezes in time to pull off a 90%+ average. Rumors are that Michael has a little "Faigel" whispering in his ear!

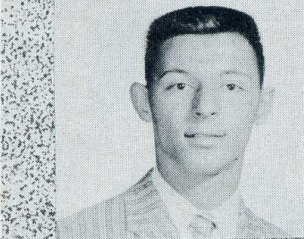

BRIAN MARYK — The stronger half of the Simkin-Maryk partnership, Brian was another of Rm. 38's contributions to the Junior Soccer Champs. Our "Romeo" is one of Mrs. Charney's few real favorites, and he keeps himself really busy in his role as "Big Brother" for a certain L.K.

MORTY MENUCK — Tall(?), dark(?), handsome (yea!), personable, good-natured, intelligent, dynamic, and just all-round terrific all apply to Mort. Without him Rm. 38 would be completely dull, and without him these write-ups would never have been created.

CYNTHIA MINUK — Cynthia is a bundle of energy whose cheery voice can usually be heard above the racket in study periods. A really terrific bowler, she can usually be seen hanging around the door plotting with her pal Carol.

IAN OKELL — Our "walking baseball encyclopedia", Ian excels in all sports—football, track, tumbling, and curling. One of the few quiet guys around, Ian is a really terrific guy who's liked by all.

LYLA POLANSKY—A new member of Rm. 38, Lyla came to us from Quebec after Christmas. A good student, she has made many friends during the short time she has been in Winnipeg.

BRIAN REBCHUK—A politician from way back, this crusader is responsible for establishing the Junior Red Cross in the place of importance in school life it enjoys today. The noisier half of the Rebchuk-Dolenko duo, Brian will someday control us all from city hall.

BERNICE REGNELL—Our "Little Lulu" keeps the girls in the room supplied with Kleenex. A slim blonde with a sparkling personality, "Bernie" was active in sports and is one of the girls sports editors of the Techonian.

SAUL ROMALIS — Some fellows just seem to have it all — and then there's Romalis. Famous with his co-conspirator Collins for their amazing results in Physics, "Sollie's" other interests include curling and chess. Favorite expression: "Now this is how Yanovskiy would do it."

EUGENE SENICKI—"Honest you guys, I AM school President!" Aside from his presidential duties, "Eugenie", (as Miss Whiteside calls him) keeps busy at starring in basketball and track, and still manages to get top marks. An all-around student, Gene is well-liked by all, and he should go far.

MIRIAM SERLIN — This small secretive member of the room can usually be found in the library. Miriam spends most of her time practising the piano and the rest of it with her pal Bayla.

CHRISTEL SIMONIS—The librarian of the room who can often be found opening the library for Miss Whiteside, Chris also played inter-room volleyball and basketball. A pleasant, good-natured kid, she is one of the few who seem to actually enjoy their work.

SANDRA SMALL — Co-editor of these write-ups, Sandra can usually be seen "harrying" up and down the halls on the third floor. One of the quieter (???) members of the class, she is an avid "Peanuts" fan and a member of the Kudlac-Small-Woytyshyn trio.

ELI WEISSTUB — Here's a guy you can write a book about! Though permanently "fogbound", he comes out of it long enough to work as co-editor of this Torch, school treasurer, class secretary and council rep., and was also a candidate for school president. A really terrific guy, he's also head censor of these write-ups.

BEVERLEY WOYTYSHYN — When Bev decides to come to school, she arrives promptly (9:05). The centre of Mr. Manishen's attentions, Bev, is famous for her diets and "beau-ling". This is one girl who has a crush on a different boy every week.

LARRY YANCHYNSKI — The "quiet man" of Rm. 38, Larry lives by the rule "Silence is Golden",—or was that "Cleanliness is next to . . .", oh well! Anyway, he's one nice guy, who, as we understand it, is interested in linguistics.

FINN HANSEN — Finn is the number one boy in the famous trio of Hansen, Olinyk and Tobaski. Finn's specialty is soccer. Most of us think that this is the only reason he comes to school but one look at his marks proves us wrong.

WESLEY HEBER — Wesley is a milder kind of guy in school, but outside, who knows?? If he isn't studying he is sure to be making eyes at a certain E.P. All kidding aside, Wes is outstanding in his school work, and we are sure that he will be a success. Right, E.P.?

ANNE HOLMES — Anne is the first of the duet of girls in our room. She must be very patient because she certainly puts up with a lot from the guys. But along with the ribbing she does a very good job of being class secretary.

EDDY KOCHAN — Eddy is another boy from rural Manitoba. He and Lyle are continually beating up either Adam or Don. Eddy's main interest and love in school is P.T. classes. Right, Eddy??

VIC KOWALEWICH—Vic is one of the brains in the Room. Vic made all-star for the Winnipeg Hawkeyes and he also played on the Varsity Basketball team. Vic's one of the co-o-perative type (Ha! Ha!) and we're sure he'll go a long way.

MIKE OLINYK—Mike is a great track and field enthusiast. Although his interest in academic subjects is only great enough to keep him in school we are sure that, given an ample chance, he could be a great success.

EVELYN PRONYK — Evelyn makes up the other half of the duet of girls in our room. She is good at her studies but is afraid to let the boys sample the food she cooks in Home Economics. It is quite unfortunate for her that she has to walk back and fourth to Lockport every day.

CHARLES SANDULIAK—Charlie, a little Bombshell from rural Manitoba, has one over on the city slickers. Try as we may we couldn't make him tell us where he's from. His favourite subject is Maths, and we are quite sure he will succeed in whatever he chooses.

DENNIS ASHUK — Dennis is the "Mighty Mouse" of Room 39, all 5 feet 2 inches and 120 lbs. of him. He is a real "Lady Killer." Ambition — to be a second Charles Atlas. Fate — A bar bell cleaner at Silouette.

BERNARD BAISAROWICZ — Bernie comes to school mainly to get out of the cold. He is one of Mr. Beer's "lucky" victims. We feel that Bernie will be quite successful in whatever field he chooses.

BRIAN BEITZ—Brian is one of the saner people in Room 39. He is quiet and studious when the teachers are around and surprisingly also when they leave. He promises to get through with flying colors this year.

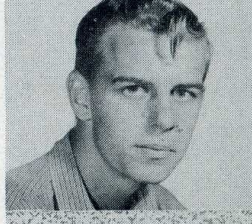

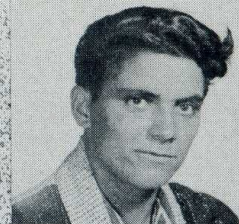

ALLAN CHAPMAN — Allan is one of those happy - go - lucky types. His main interests are motorcycles and girls. If we left Allan's Literature and Composition behind in Grade 9, he would now be up for exemptions. We wish him all the best in the future. Good luck Allan.

DON DIAKIW—Don is just another one of the boys from Pt. Douglas. He is continually talking about HIS "Norquay Neighborhood House." His ambition is to own a motorcycle. Fate: To be stuck with his C.C.M. for the rest of his life.

JAMES GLASIER—James is one of the quieter members of Room 39. One of James' favorite subjects is Art. We are confident that James will succeed in whatever field he enters. Now can I have that dollar?

GREG SURZYSHYN—Greg takes pride in his old coupe car. He has a habit of strolling in late in the morning and tries to sneak in unnoticed. All kidding aside, Greg is very good at his school work and he is also very cooperative with everyone.

LYLE WATSON—Lyle is a leading athlete in St. John's. He not only played hockey for us but also played on a Junior Team. Lyle curled on the St. John's team that won the Tribune Trophy. Lyle comes from Rathwell, is good in his academic work, and we are sure he will succeed in his future plans.

ADAM TOBASKI—Adam has a strange idea that school starts at quarter after nine. With Adam around there is never a dull moment. If you don't believe me, ask Mr. Beer!!! We wish Adam all the best in his future plans.

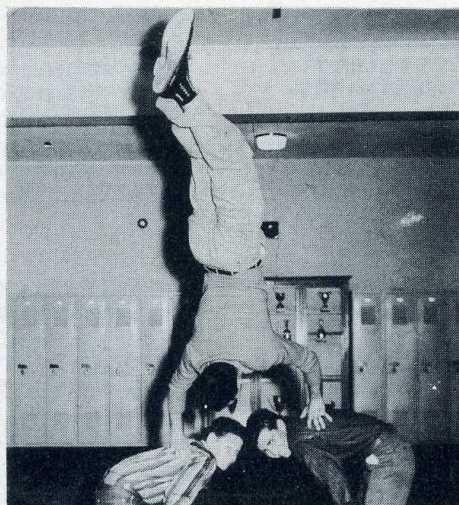

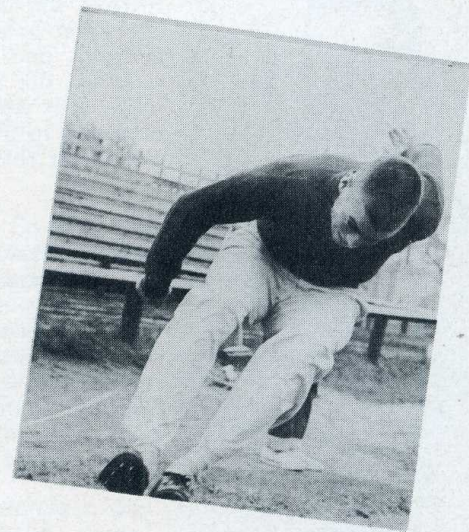

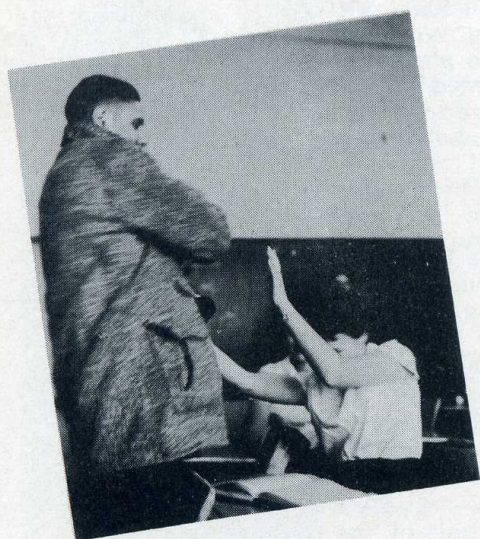

CAMERA SHY

FRED MATTHEWS — Fred does good work in school and brings joy to the hearts of all his teachers. His ambition is to be Mr. Universe but he'll probably end up being an undernourished bookkeeper. All kidding aside, we wish Fred all the best in his future plans.

MARTIN "DOC" BUCHALTER —Although a late comer to 40, "Bookmarker", with the up-turned collar, quickly fell into the groove. He contributed his many talents to creating new riots in the far corner of the room. Ambition: To be a man.

KATHY BARBOUR—This dark-haired lass with a sweet smile is a member of a majorette group and also a dancer deluxe. Kathy delights in keeping her activities out of school a secret.

GAY MARKSON—This vivacious brunette comes to school ready and rarin — to go home again. Gay has a collection ranging from a dog to a hamster to M.D.'s. Her spare time is spent in playing the piano and in opening her locker when "someone" puts the lock on backwards.

In September came the call
 "Come to school one and all
 To football, Torch, Techonian too
 Welcome students, old and new."

In January back to school we came
 To our marks which brought us ill fame
 Our radio show was really terrific
 The basketball dances were a success
 —to be specific.

The Techonian dance was one of the best
 And teachers' convention gave us a much needed rest
 Although rehearsals had us all on the run
 The Variety Concert was lots of fun.

In March we cheered for the Varsity
 Basketball team
 In winning the championship they were right on the beam
 Before we knew it Easter exams were here
 We hadn't realized they were really so near.

Elections opened with a bang
On the radio our choir sang
The Freshie dance was a huge success

Our Remembrance Day came with snow and sleet
The Junior Soccer team had not a defeat
Ballroom dancing was loads of fun
Coming exams left much to be done.

The Christmas Cheer Dance was bright and cheery
In December when all was dreary
For exams were to come soon after
But then the holidays brought lots of laughter.

When April came we still had snow
We made our debut on the Warren
Davis show
In the Provincial Basketball Championship we did well
We came in second as time did tell.

The Torch Soph Dance was just the best
Our King and Queen really passed the test
We held our field day after much rain
"We'll win Inter-High" was quite the refrain.

June brought studying and plenty of woes
But preparations for Grad put us back on our toes.
With exams to look forward to we really aren't sad
May we wish Good Luck to each and every Grad.

58-59 Council Has Successful Year

Since 1926, when Mr. G. J. Reeve inaugurated student self-government, the St. John's Student Council has played an important role in school life, and as we have seen the large number of Council-sponsored activities, this year was no exception.

In September, after a hard week of campaigning, school elections for President and Vice-President were held. Eugene Senicki was elected president, and Phyllis Dudeck vice-president. Soon afterwards Joan Scott became Secretary of Council and Eli Weisstub Financial Chairman.

The school charities were given under the auspices of the Red Cross upon recommendation of the Council. Thus, charity projects were sponsored such as Christmas Cheer, which has now become a St. John's tradition.

The Social committee, with Brian Kurtz as chairman, supervised noon-hour dancing, and helped set St. John's awhirl with the outstanding Freshie Frolic, Basketball Dances, the Sophomore Dance, and gala Grad Formal.

The Bars and Awards committee was headed by David Weisstub along with Miss Collison collecting individual points for "J's" and pins, and also revising sections of the point system.

Adding to the rising school spirit at St. John's this year were the purchases of school sweat-shirts, and jewellery—handled by the Financial Committee under the chairmanship of Eli Weisstub.

St. John's was shown to be on top once again with our excellent radio and television shows acclaimed as some of the finest high-school programs this year. These projects were ably handled by the Radio and T.V. Committee with Jackie Simkin as chairman.

The 1958-59 Students' Council at St. John's certainly did their best to live up to our school motto, "Usque Ad Astra"—"right up to the Stars."

 Paul Bogdonov, Adelgunde Wekwert, Mary Anne Meder, Olga Makeoff, David Weisstub, Vincent Taraska, Earl Olsen, Deedee Posner, Lil Leb, Bernice Chura, Rose Strileski.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross Council of St. John's High is happy to announce that it has enjoyed a most successful year. Our agenda, planned in the late fall, was completed with more success than was originally anticipated. The Christmas Cheer Drive, sponsored by the Junior Red Cross, resulted in the preparation and distribution of no less than twenty-three hampers. By checking at school functions we raised necessary funds to cover the expenses of Christmas Cheer and the Red Cross tape recording. Our assistance helped make the "Spring Fling" both a financial and social success.

These projects could not have been completed without the whole-hearted support of the students and the staff. For this and all other favours we are very grateful and hope that in the years to come the Junior Red Cross will remain an important part of school life at St. John's.

SOCIALS

This year St. John's calendar has been filled with social affairs. To start off the year a very successful Freshie Dance was held on September 26. The dance was held in St. John's gymnasium and auditorium. Our newly elected president, Eugene Senicki, introduced the lovely Freshie Queen candidates to the audience, and announced, after much suspense, that our queen for 1959 was Donna Wilson of Room 15. Her princesses were Tannis Guttman of Room 37, and Jean Wasylinki of Room 17. Guest of honor, last year's queen, Eileen Zoellner, crowned our new queen.

Two Physical Training Dances were held this year. One dance was for grades nine and ten and the other for grades eleven and twelve. The dances which we had been taught were practised here and were fun for teachers and students alike.

Our last fling before Christmas exams was a Christmas Cheer Dance, sponsored by the Red Cross Council of St. John's. It was held on December 13. The proceeds of this dance went to the needy.

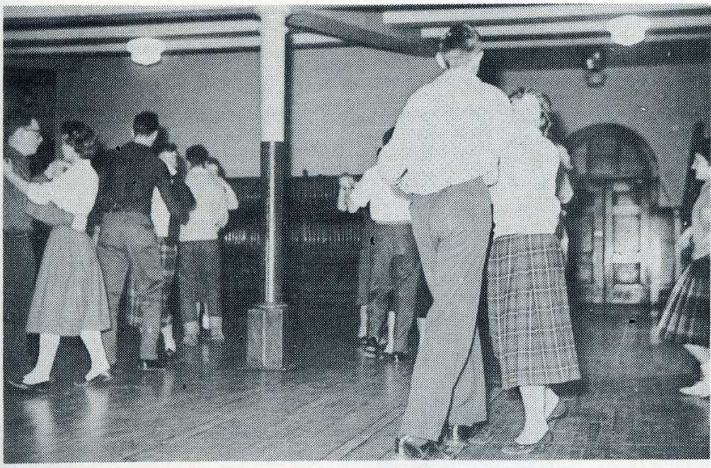

On February 11 our newspaper, the Tchonian, sponsored a "Sweetheart Hop". Refreshments were sold by the hard-working reporters and the proceeds helped to finance the paper. As an added attraction a "Sweetheart Queen" was chosen. This was Bernie Wolchuk of Room 31.

Another annual dance, the Sophomore Dance, was held on May 8. This dance was sponsored by the Torch. The charming queen, Phyllis Dudeck of Room 36, was crowned by last year's King, Ron Golovitch. The queen's co-ruler, Brian Kurtz of Room 22 was crowned by last years queen Helen Obrotza.

Many basketball dances were held at Inkster School this year, after victorious basketball games. An impromptu Victory Dance was held on March 7 in honour of our victorious basketball players.

The social event of the school term is yet to come. Graduation will be held on June 16. This promises to be a really memorable affair.

SHORT STORY

THE THIEF

Her eyes darted uneasily around the room, and her teeth bit into her bottom lip nervously. Soon they would realize it was gone. She tried to continue her work but found concentration impossible. What would she say if they questioned her about it? What would she do? Panic-stricken she realized it was too late to retrace her steps and return it.

Slyly, her eyes on the look out for any suspicious glance in her direction, she pushed her now clammy hand into her pocket and grasped the object. Her hand fumbled with the catch and she reached in deeper to caress the coins. Five quarters found their way into her fingers. She counted them secretly, glowing with satisfaction.

Robust voices shattered the wall built up by her thoughts. A new sense of panic gripped her like an iron claw. Voices, thousands of them. Were they talking about her? Did they suspect? Beads of perspiration found their way down her brow. Oh my God, Peggy was coming this way now. Had she guessed . . .

The words floated down to her, cruelly piercing the choking fog which seemed to envelop her.

"Hi, Karen, say listen! Did you see my change purse? I gave it to you to put in my pocket and it doesn't seem to be there now."

"No, of course not. I put it in your pocket and that's the last I saw of it. You don't think I stole it, do you?"

"Don't be silly. I just thought I'd ask. After all if I can't trust you, Karen, whom can I trust? You're my best friend and you know how much that money means to me."

With that she left, never suspecting a thing was amiss.

Karen hung her head in shame. What was she doing? She wasn't a thief. Somehow she must return it. But how? She certainly couldn't walk up to Peg and say, "Here is your purse. I'm sorry I stole it." Tears began to well up in her eyes. She must not cry. Peg was her best friend. She had complete trust in her, believed in her. She must not let her down, no matter what the cost. Somehow she must show Peg she was worthy of that trust. If she had been able to steal the money from Peg's coat pocket without being seen, why then couldn't she return it the same way. Stealthily, she crept back to the lobby where the coats were hanging. Something was wrong. The coat was gone!

"But it's got to be here," she gasped.

Suddenly she turned and saw Peg standing there, the coat in her hand. One look at her face told the tale. Peg had known all along. There was no use in denying it. And yet, not one trace of anger showed in her clear, grey eyes. Slowly Karen faced her, filled with deep shame. But to her extreme bewilderment, Peg turned her back and said barely above a whisper, "I can't see what you're doing when I've got my back turned." Karen understood. She took the coat from Peg's hand and placed the money in the pocket feeling as if she had been drained of all self respect, then, unable to bear it any longer she let the tears come. But sometimes forgiveness is possible, for Karen felt a warm hand take her own and heard a gentle voice say, "What are friends for, if not to stick together. I know you are sorry and that is enough for me."

And with that miracle the choking fog lifted and Karen smiled. She had been a thief and almost stolen a few silver coins, but God had been king and shown her the gold in a true friendship.

The Gates of the Shadow

In the long, long nights
Of the cold doubt,
I lie and feel within my breast
With what ceaseless stir
The busy seconds boxcar my life
Off to the halled marshalling yards.

I survey the vast corroding ranks
Honour guard to pain past
And pleasure past
And folly past repair
In mute review
And inaccessible nearness
Before my two groping-blind eclectics,
And I think of the time
Of no tomorrow;
I am but this rotting residue
Housed in all these rotting halls
In the end
I shall be nothing.

Nothing!

And the thought icicles my heart,
For nothingness is the sovereign terror.

Does the mad meteor too
Quenching his speed in a bath of liquid fire
And his life in his headlong fall,
Hiss, "Forever"! to the wind?
Or does the frail, brainless flower
Writhing in the fanatic joy of life
That muteness forbade it to sing,
Also dream eternities
Even as the autumn murderer comes?

Why O man,
You mist protagonist of a random moment
Somewhere in a labyrinthine cloud
Of sunshot bubbles,
Did you learn to crave immortality?

Is there some part of me that truly wants
To outlive the stars,
That feeds on the iron hours of infinity,
As thoughtlessly as the eye sees,
And the ear hears?
Or are my dreams and Gods of terror bred?

POETRY

2nd THE CASTLE

Sprung from dull earth, above me looms the wall,
The cold, grey, frowning wall and haughty tower;
Through hungry, waiting jaws I see the hall
Where I must wander, aimless, hour by hour.

Weary I wend my way o'er stone on stone,
The empty footsteps echoing through my soul;
Weary I wend my way, and I bemoan
That I must walk unconscious of my goal.

Oh, for a star, an object of desire:
Oh, for a star to strive toward—then would I
Bound through the careless halls, climb higher and higher
Into the heav'n-ward tower, to the breathless sky,
To the infinite azure sky—Then none shall bar
My joyful hope, my will to reach my star.

HONORABLE MENTION

Two men knocked one, stormy night,
One dark of skin, one fair and pale
The last was welcomed in at once;
The first was left to brave the gale.

The master of the house was asked,
"Why scorned must the Black Man be
To stay outside?" The man replied,
"Because he does not look like me."

That night the master dreamed a dream—
Two men were standing, black and white,
When suddenly from out the void,
Appeared a wondrous mystic light.

It melted flesh, and bone, and blood,
Distinction, colour, race, and name.
It laid their very spirits bare
And lo! Their souls were just the same.

A loud knock waked the master up.
There in the doorway, all alone
The Black Man stood. The master said,
"Forgive me Brother, welcome home."

RUTH LUCOW, X—33

"Winter, - Wonderland?"

The snow fell on our town the other day.
"Oh, how lovely it is," I heard people say.
Children ran outdoors thinking it was magic,
But I stayed in thinking it was tragic.

For me, the snow is like the symptom of some dread disease
Which kills the flowers and strips the trees.
The frigid wind with its nasty bite
Is the sickness which brings forth this ghastly sight.

When I step outside, I feel no joy—
I don't run about like a tiny boy.
All I feel is the stinging cold of the swirling sleet,
And the soggy slush about my feet.

You can have your snow and slippery ice.
You can have your winters and think they're nice.
For me, snow and winters need never be made,
And I'll have my ice in my lemonade.

MUSIC

RADIO CHOIR

As in previous years, the St. John's mixed choir under the able direction of Miss Knapp, performed in their usual pleasant manner. Throughout the year a number of enthusiastic students attended daily sessions for what proved to be an exciting and busy year in choir work.

Early in the school term the members of the new choir assembled and rehearsed frantically for the Manitoba school radio broadcast about to take place on October 9th. The deep tones of the baritone section blended harmoniously with the girls' voices to produce a delightful performance. The choir's rendition of "O Valiant Hearts" added a touch of solemnity to the annual Remembrance Day Service as St. John's joined the world in honoring those who unselfishly gave their lives that others might enjoy freedom and peace. For the February Variety Concert a selection of modern songs, contrary to those of preceding years, was chosen and greatly enjoyed at the final performance. After a lapse of several months a choir of members of the graduating class was formed and preparations made for the June Graduation Service.

As we advance into other fields, we will undoubtedly look back at our final school year and remember the enjoyable moments we spent being a part of our school tradition.

The "Hi Freshman" is a handbook that is distributed to new students entering the school. It contains all the information needed to acquaint freshmen with St. John's and advise them on rules, regulations, extra-curricular activities, and school traditions. This booklet, edited and published by the students themselves, is an asset to the senior students as well as the newcomers.

OUTSTANDING ART STUDENTS

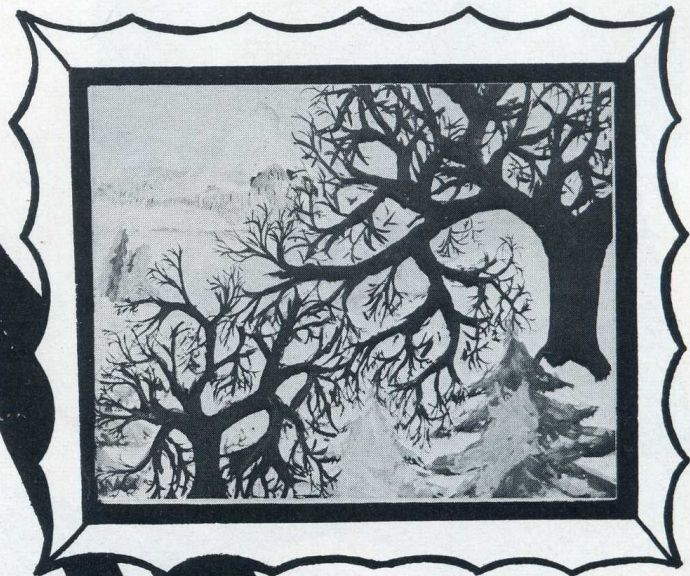

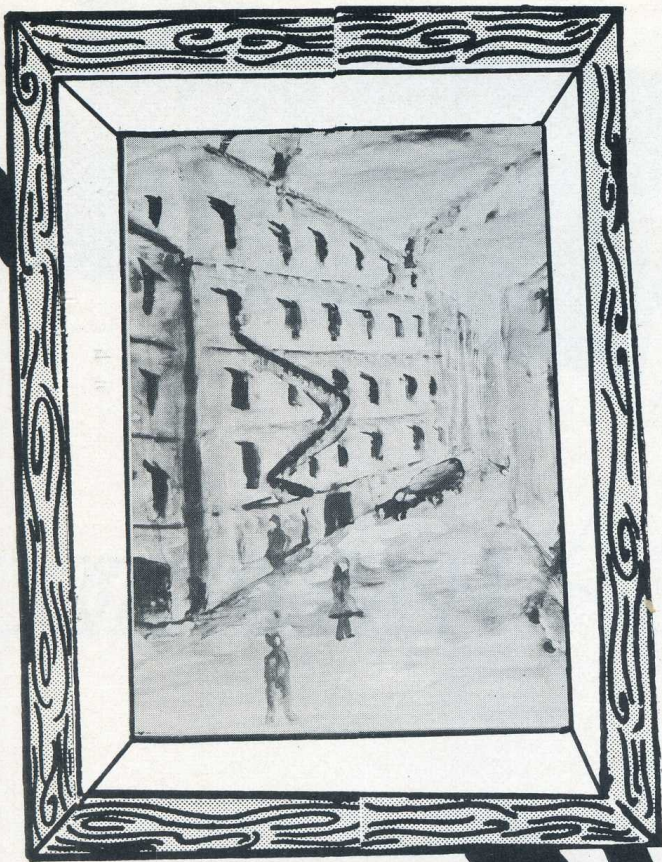

We had a great deal of activity in our Art Room. The students were busy working on paintings in water colors and oils, block printing, Christmas banners, string designs, collages, paper mache, etc. The biggest attraction was the Ceramic Kiln which was working full blast all year, producing beautiful glazed ceramics—also ceramic tiles for mosaics.

The art prize was given to Paul Wong for his excellent work and profound interest.

VARIETY

On February 19th and 20th the hallowed halls of St. John's rang once more with the joyous sounds of the Annual Variety Concert. Many students participated not only as performers but also as stage hands, costumers, make-up artists and ushers.

The concert, a climax to many weeks of hard work and skipped classes, began with a medley of Rogers and Hammerstein tunes sung by the St. John's choir under the very able direction of Miss Knapp. The choir returned later in the evening with various selections from Brigadoon. This was indeed a highlight of the concert.

The dancers, with Mrs. Gannon's help, created a light feeling with their Irish Jig and Drummer Dance. A new twist this year was the Ukranian Dance performed by several St. John's students. Lively, indeed!

CONCERT

Of course, the tumblers under Mr. Pastuck's guidance were excellent. They kept everyone on the edge of his seat with their feats of strength and agility.

Aside from all the group acts this year St. John's featured many solos; vocal, instrumental and dance.

Mr. Romanow's square-dancers, all decked out in their brightest clothes added a gay and lively spirit to the show.

The concert ended in a humorous note as the Drama Club presented "Shall We Join the Ladies". This was surely enjoyed by all.

Well, another concert gone and many more to go. The Variety Concert certainly is an important part of St. John's tradition.

CLUB CORNER

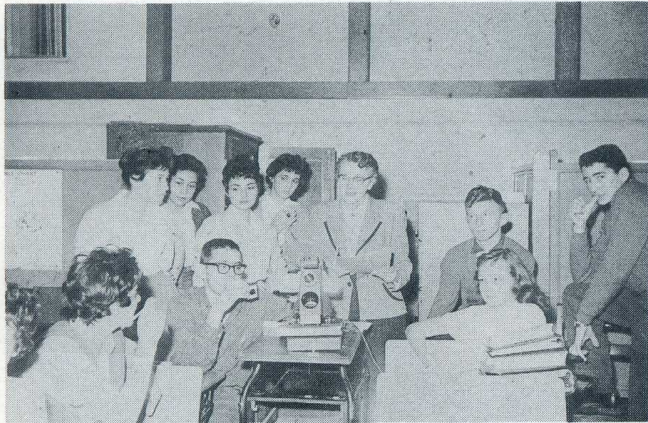

SQUARE DANCING

At the beginning of the year the Square Dance Club was a mixture of experienced square dancers and novices. Due to the large membership the Square Dance Club met twice weekly, Thursdays and Fridays. On Thursdays it was under the capable direction of Mr. Romanow and on Friday it was directed by the executives. The executives consisted of Helen Skull, president and Diane Gillies, secretary-treasurer. We hope that next year the square dancing club will continue to be a great success.

CURLING

Under the able guidance of Mr. Barager and Mr. Wherrett, the St. John's Curling Club flourished. From 4:30 until 6:30 the forty members played their hearts out in pursuit of victory. Arnie Pollock's rink won the Grand Aggregate; Eugene Kogan's won the Consolation Series; and the rest of the rinks engaged in a knock-out tournament. League officials were Arnie Pollock, president, and Ian Okell, secretary-treasurer. The rink from St. John's skipped by Bob Lemecha won the Tribune Trophy in the Manitoba High School Bonspiel and nearly won out in the championship round. We enjoyed an interesting and highly competitive curling season.

MANNERS SLIDES

This is a new club for St. John's. It meets on Fridays at 11:30 with the executive secretary, Lois Cramer and the advisor Miss Pettingell. This group of about thirteen students writes the script, takes the pictures and prepares the slides themselves. The students choose whatever phases of etiquette they wish to present and the resulting slides are both interesting and educational.

DRAMA CLUB

This has been a lucrative year for St. John's hopeful Barrymores and Pickfords. Throughout the year, the Drama Club meetings consisted of play readings and instruction. Experience thus gained, enabled many members to enjoy participation in the play presented for the Variety Concert, and to audition for parts in the Theatre Centre productions.

CHESS

This year's Chess Club, run by Saul Romalis, club organizer, Shirley Wish, secretary and Harry Motyka, president, meets twice weekly, Tuesdays and Fridays at 12:30 in Room 25. Anyone is free to join the club, whether he knows the game or not. With the able teaching of Saul Romalis anyone can learn to play chess in just a few minutes.

CLUBS (con't)

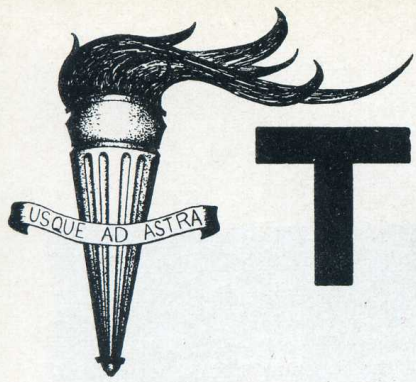

DEBATING—The debating club meets to discuss controversial topics of varying natures. Many heated discussions are held under the auspices of this club, but the members leave as friends with broader views on many things in life. The president for 1958-59 was Ethel Silverman.

BOWLING—Every Thursday at 4:30 P.M. the ten teams of St. John's High School Bowling League roll off at the Cooper-Mosienko Bowling Alleys. The winner is chosen by a point system and cups are presented to the winning teams. Persons with the highest averages also get cups at the end of the school year. The league's president is Marilyn Greenspan.

HISTORICAL CLUB — The historical club has had a very successful year under the able guidance of Miss Whiteside. The highlight of the year's activities was the annual historical trip which included visits to old forts, Inkster House, Ross House, Upper and Lower Fort Garry and the Seven Oaks Monument. This trip, held on May 28, climaxed an interesting, enjoyable, and certainly beneficial year for all members of the historical club.

FRENCH CONVERSATION—This year the members of the French Conversation Club have enjoyed themselves immensely singing melodious French folk-songs and carrying on lively French conversations. Under Mr. Manishen's capable guidance our knowledge of the "langue de l'amour" has greatly increased and as a result we have come to a greater appreciation of the language.

RADIO AND TELEVISION SHOW

On January 22 St. John's Auditorium was the scene of Bill Guest's High School Radio Show. The highlight of the show was an interview with Ernie "Zazu" Pitts, Winnipeg Blue Bomber player and coach of St. John's Tigers. Musically, St. John's boasted three students each of who sang songs in the popular vein. To add intellect to the programme a controversial panel discussion was presented by three students. The show was organized and moderated by Jackie Simkin to whom we all owe a vote of thanks.

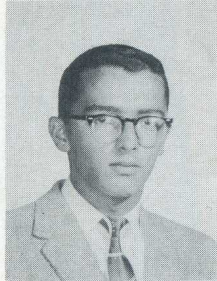

On April 6 St. John's students had a chance to participate on the Warren Davis Show, a weekly T.V. show which features Winnipeg High Schools. The school president, basketball team captain, track star, and representatives to M.U.N.A. were interviewed. The panel discussion led by Doug Loughlin was lively and provided much entertainment. A new twist to the show was the display by St. John's of their dancing skills. Of course there was jiving to the latest hits and everyone who participated had a wonderful time.

Tigers Finish Hard Season

As school reopened students looked upon the football team with a gleam in their eyes. The team had a strong line and some of the speediest backs in the league. But alas, when the examination results came out some of the stars disappeared. Mr. Pastuck, the coach, had to rebuild a new team, composed mostly of first year men with the exception of a few regulars such as Allan Zajak, Jack London and Nick Yacheson.

Although losing all their games the Tigers showed a fine display of playing ability and sportsmanship. Many of the games were lost by very close margins. As school draws to an end students expectantly look forward to next year, for we know that the team will be more experienced and as a result much better.

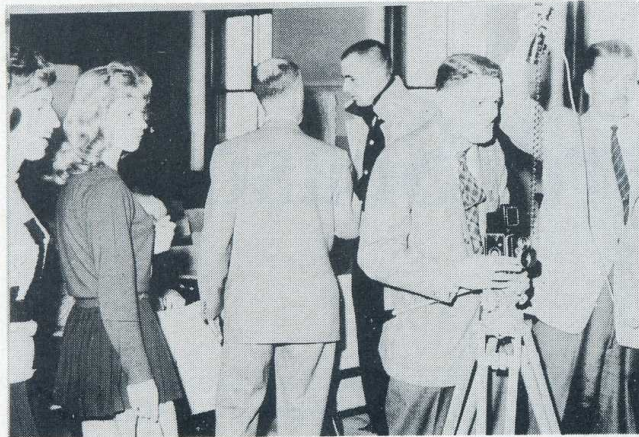

Congratulations should be made to Nick Yacheson for being selected to the all-star team.

CHEERLEADERS

The school spirit of St. John's rose greatly this year due to our spirited squad of cheerleaders. With leader Mary Ann Meder are Judy Ross, Shirley Katz, Donna Wilson, Diane Meder, Carole Bender, Ruthie Soudack, Lorraine Huzel and Linda Petruaga.

These girls performed at all football and basketball games. To have these splendid performances, many long hours are spent in practicing. Each noon-hour the auditorium vibrates with the sound of nine hearty "ki yi yip's." Besides appearing at the sporting events the cheerleaders also came out for pep rallies. St. John's thanks you for the good work, girls.

Over the regular season the junior soccer team, under the able guidance of Mr. Johnson, distinguished themselves by winning all of their games by shutouts. This feat was accomplished with the help of fine play by John Schepers, Jurgen Ruge, Larry Keryluk, Fred Pesclevitch, and goalie Alan Melanchuk.

On a Wednesday afternoon in November, St. John's met Churchill High in the city final. This game which produced sparkling play by both teams, was scoreless in the first half. Then in the second half, with very few minutes remaining, Hans Schmidt scored the winning goal. The game ended in a 1-0 victory for St. John's, the new junior city champions.

St. John's senior soccer team, coached by Mr. Popeil, managed one tie in four games this year.

The first of two games against Tec Voc resulted in a 2-0 victory for Tec Voc. St. John's showed a fine reversal of form in the other game, but lost 3-2. Ron Genyk scored both goals.

Elmwood defeated St. John's 3-1 in their first meeting.

Varsity Basketball Team Emerges City Champs

The Varsity Team under the capable coaching of Mr. McPherson emerged victorious in the city finals. After losing three games during the regular season the Tigers went on to defeat Kelvin in the semi-finals and then Tec Voc in the finals. Benson Wincure was the hero in the final game by scoring a basket in sudden death overtime.

Much to the disappointment of many fans who turned up at the University field-house St. John's was defeated in the provincial finals by St. James. After defeating Selkirk and St. Paul's in order to enter the final round, St. John's could not keep up with the highly spirited Jimmies..

During the regular season two exhibition games were played with the high-school team from Drayton, North Dakota. The Americans proved to be too powerful for the Tigers, but win or lose, the boys enjoyed themselves. St. John's played Tec Voc and the University Bisons in other exhibition games. As a final conclusion to this fine season the members of the Varsity team played host to Hugh O'Brian during one of their practices.

Congratulations should be extended to Eugene Senicki, Bob Kingsmill, and Ron Golovitch for being selected to the city all-star team.

Freshman Basketball Team Has Good Year

The St. John's freshman basketball team showed much spirit but not enough drive as they ended the season with two wins and five losses. Perhaps the team might have done much better had it not been for the loss of many fine players as a result of exams.

In their first game St. John's could not be denied victory as they posted their first win of the season, a 33-19 decision over Churchill.

Daniel Mac edged St. John's in a thriller by 28-26. Dan Sernyk and Les Gilfix were the top point getters for the Orange and Brown.

In an exhibition game St. John's defeated the Hornets from Tec Voc to the tune of 45-29. Once again Les Gilfix proved to be top man with 22 points.

However when it really counted, the future champs from Tec Voc showed their material as they buzzed past St. John's by 48-38.

Sisler handed St. John's their third straight defeat, as they fell before the Spartans by 74-50. Les Gilfix, Dan Sernyk, and Ike Kalinsky with 17, 13, and 9 points respectively fought bravely in a losing cause.

Kelvin clipped the Orange and Brown by 40-32.

St. John's were out-scored and out-hustled by Gordon Bell losing by the score of 53-40. Dan Sernyk, Andy Krentz and Enoch Padolsky were the stars for the St. John's quintet.

In their final game St. John's with a fine effort roared past Elmwood winning 48-26. Les Gilfix continued his dominance of the score sheet as he pocketed 26 points.

Our congratulations go out to Les Gilfix who made the Inter-High All-Star team.

Even though the Freshmen did not make the play-offs they did however provide the school with fine basketball entertainment under the fine coaching of Mr. McPherson.

SENIORS

The Senior team, under the excellent coaching and leadership of Ron Golovitch and Mr. Promislow, after several practices showed much ability and spirit. Lady Luck however was not with our Seniors this year and they had a few disheartening losses by only a few points. Nevertheless everyone enjoyed being a part of the team which exhibited good sportsmanship.

Some valuable assets to the team were Winnie Sunderland, Sandy Marks, Lorraine Huzel, Eileen Sunderland and Sandra Butler.

JUNIOR GIRLS

It seems that all the dribbling, passing, and shooting paid off for the Junior girls. They showed enough spirit and zest to come up with three deserving wins and sadly, three losses. This team shows great possibilities for next year. Keep up the good work girls!

Some girls who were a great asset to the team were: Donna Wilson, Linda Petruaga, and Lil Leb.

Special thanks go to Bob Kingsmill and Nick Yacheson for their able coaching!

"Pass, set-up, spike!" This phrase could be heard each and every morning when our senior girls attended their practises.

Although they only won two games, I believe that our senior girls learned that winning isn't everything in a game, although I must admit, it helps. Sportsmanship and fellowship were shown at each game as we came out the silent losers. One game really showed this, and that was the game against Kelvin. As you can see by the score, it was pretty close all the way (33-32). As soon as the game commenced it was close, we'd get a point, and then they'd get one and so on. I believe that this game was so evenly matched that it was just a matter of luck as to who the winner would be. But unfortunately it wasn't us.

A few girls who aided our senior volleyball team were: Barbara Reid, Lorraine Huzel, Phyllis Dudeck, and Winnie Sunderland.

Play ball! Spike! If you passed the gym door early each morning, you could probably hear the Junior girls busily practicing their volleyball skills. In spite of all their hard work, the girls seemed to lose game after game. But, they still had enough spark and spirit in them to gain one victory which was against Sisler. We hope that this spark and spirit remains in them to bring better luck next year!

A few girls who were a great asset to the team were: Linda Daptil, Lil Leb, Donna Wilson, and Linda Petruaga.

Our thanks and appreciation go to Miss Ritchie for her time and effort in coaching us!

SENIOR INTER-ROOM VOLLEYBALL

The Inter-room games, which have the main purpose of giving everyone a chance to play volleyball, were very successful because they captured the wholehearted support of all the girls.

Rm. 38, a team with fire, seized first place in the Senior division after several hard-fought games. Sparked by such players as Judy Kudlac, Bernice Regnell, Bev. Woytyshyn, and Christol Simonis the team was found to be unbeatable.

Their spirit once more flared in the final game and they defeated Rm. 23, the Junior Champs, to become the school Inter-Room Champs.

ROOM 35 GIRLS ARE INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL CHAMPS

Due to certain circumstances, the grade nine's and ten's didn't play inter-room basketball, but the grade eleven's and twelve's played with the result that room 35 became the school basketball champs. They won every game in which they played.

A few outstanding players on that team were Winnie Sunderland, Sandy Butler, and Carmen Kostaniuk.

The team of Ron Golovitch, Bob Kingsmill, Bill Moss, Gary Marantz, Sheldon Glass, Benson Wincure and Ron Sawiak put Room 31 ahead easily, winning 16 games against no losses. Room 31 would like to thank their coach, F. (Sneakers) Harder, and their manager, A. (Moochie) Pollock for their fine help and support.

Room 40 boys went through the inter-room series undefeated. They edged Rm. 17 out of the inter-high finals in a do or die thriller which ended with Room 40 on top with one point. The team went into the finals at Sisler and was defeated in the first game by the Kelvin boys who eventually went on to win the tournament. The St. John's team lost to Sisler in their second game when the Spartans were given a bit of a handicap—St. John's played with only three men.

In primitive living, producing fire was one of man's more important developments in his struggle to master the physical world. After the white traders came to North America the natives traded their furs for flints and steels and used these for firemaking. Indians carried these in beaded skin pouches called firebags, and used dry seeds as kindling to blow on and start the fire from the flint sparks. Eskimos use the firestick, twirled either with the hands or with a skin line. See these materials displayed in our Historical Exhibit on the Fourth Floor.

CITY HYDRO

. . . an outstanding example of successful municipal ownership

Citizens of Winnipeg are well aware of City Hydro's record of achievement over the past 45 years. Since its origin in 1906, City Hydro has grown from an initial investment of $3,500,000 into a $55,000,000 utility.

During this period low rates have placed the convenience and economy of electric service within the reach of every income and contributed greatly towards the high standard of living now enjoyed in Winnipeg homes.

Traditions that live

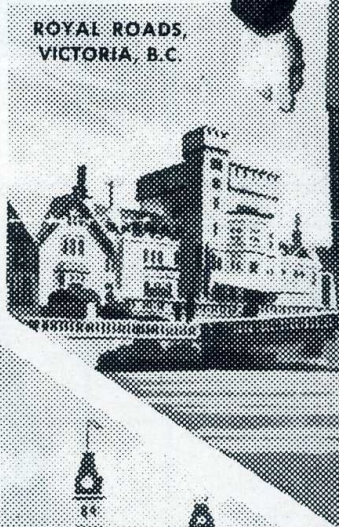

Strong and honourable traditions provide the foundation of firm training in leadership expressed today in the motto of the three Canadian Services Colleges: Truth-Duty-Valour.

Allied to the prestige of the past is advanced education at university level given by these colleges to the officer-cadets of Canada's armed forces. Carefully selected high school graduates are trained for challenging professional careers as officers in the Navy, Army or Air force, for the responsibility of holding the Queen's Commission.
